

Limit is 6 O'Clock Sunday Evening For Huerta to Consent to Salute The Flag

Wilson Tells Huerta That if He Does Not Guarantee By That Hour Sunday Evening to Salute the Stars and Stripes, He Will on Monday Ask Congress for Power to Act—If the Worst Comes, Vera Cruz, Tampico and a Portion of the Railway to Mexico City Will Be Seized—Navy Department Is Flashing Its Orders.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 18.—Huerta will salute the American flag at Tampico before 6:00 p. m. Sunday, or President Wilson will go before Congress in a joint session on Monday, and ask for authority to take such measures as may be necessary.

The following statement was issued at the White House:

"General Huerta is still insisting on doing something less than has been demanded, and something less than would constitute an acknowledgment that his representatives were entirely in the wrong in the indignities they have put upon the United States. President Wilson has determined that if Huerta has not yielded by 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon, he will take the matter before Congress on Monday." Secretary Bryan explained that that statement meant that Huerta would be obliged to guarantee the salute without qualifications by 6:00 p. m. Sunday, but that physical obstacles might defer its being fired by that hour.

Both Republican and Democratic leaders are agreed that should some overnight development cause the President to take some steps before he could consult with Congress, he would be sustained in whatever he finds it necessary to do.

Unless Huerta accepts the American demands immediately, the plan for the seizure of Tampico and Vera Cruz will be carried out without waiting for Admiral Badger and his ships to reach Mexican waters. This plan also includes the seizure of the railway from Vera Cruz to Mexico City as far as a trestle, about 20 miles west of Vera Cruz.

While President Wilson's final message was in transmission to Mexico City, orders were flashing out from the Navy department putting all the forces in Mexican waters in readiness to enforce its terms. There were no orders to the troops at Texas City. Members of the Cabinet have been summoned to the White House for a conference.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 18.—(Bulletin)—Huerta has reiterated his counter proposition for a simultaneous salute. President Wilson has informed him that the United States stands on the original demand of Rear Admiral Mayo, and that he must accept immediately.

Huerta's reply to the latest representation of the United States is described by officials today as "unresponsive." As O'Shaughnessy's dispatches were being deciphered, it became known there was more quibbling over terms. Secretary Bryan took the latest dispatches to the White House to lay them before President Wilson, who again cancelled his plans to go to White Sulphur Springs for the week end. It is thought Huerta is making an effort to bring an end to the negotiations.

The opinion expressed among officials close to the White House, among Cabinet officials and in Congress, was that Huerta would be notified by Wilson that his demand for a 21 gun salute was final. It was pointed out, however, that this situation may easily assume a waiting phase until next Tuesday or Wednesday, when the battleships will have reached Mexican waters, and the demonstration ordered on the coast will be under way. With Rear Admiral Badger's ships at Tampico and Vera Cruz, and the Pacific fleet off western ports, official Washington expects Huerta will be given a certain time in which to comply with the United States' demands.

The Board of Aides, which with Secretary Daniels, is the executive force of the Navy, went into a secret conference today to complete plans for the movements of the fleet and marines. It is reported in official circles that President Wilson might address Congress personally on Monday.

Mexico City, April 18.—The substance of the reply of the United States Government to the demand of President Huerta that there should be a simultaneous salute fired by the Americans when the Mexicans salute the American flag was delivered last night by Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American Charge d'Affairs, to Senor Portillo y Rojas, the Foreign Minister.

The Cabinet meeting lasted three hours. It was impossible to learn its result from either the Minister or Mr. O'Shaughnessy.

HIS PLAYTHING.

—Donnell in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Mexican Foreign Minister said that his Government would regard the return salute by the United States in response to the Mexican salute of the American flag as a tacit recognition of the Huerta administration.

By Associated Press.

Torreon, April 18.—"I do not believe the Tampico incident will result in war between the United States and Mexico," said General Villa. He said he was certain he could protect American non-combatants in Mexico if war should break out between the two nations.

Washington, April 18.—The confidence of the administration that the acute Mexican situation had cleared was shattered when the president and his advisers were recipient of a new inquiry from Huerta which amounted to a stipulation by him that the United States agree to fire a salute to the Mexican flag simultaneously with the salute that he would render to the American colors by way of reparation for the Tampico incident.

This inquiry was regarded by the Washington government as insolent and entirely out of accord with the spirit of the demand which the United States had made on account of the affront to the American flag and the American uniform.

As a result, Huerta is in receipt of a reply from this government which is in effect an ultimatum. He has been given to understand in as forceful language as this government could properly emphasize that the reparation must be rendered for the Tampico insult by a salute of 21 guns as emphasized in the demand by Admiral Mayo, and that this government will tolerate no further dallying.

It is, therefore, now up to Huerta to say whether or not he will order the salute of 21 guns or whether he will take the consequences. If he refuses the demand, the battleships now hurrying towards Tampico will blockade and seize all ports on the gulf coast and the United States naval vessels on the Pacific coast will undertake a similar campaign in those waters.

The president's plan now is exactly as it was before the renewal of negotiations by Huerta. The custom houses will be seized and held until such time as the Mexican government will render adequate satisfaction to the demands of the United States.

While the day's developments made the outlook for a peaceful settlement less favorable, the president and his advisers still insist that they are encouraged in the hope that Huerta will yet yield.

Secretary Daniels disclosed that the third division of the Atlantic fleet, including the Virginia, Connecticut and Ohio, now undergoing slight repairs in drydock, probably will go to Mexico April 26 or 27. The ships will not be overhauled until that time.

Secretary Daniels said that no additional ships of the Pacific fleet had been ordered to the west coast of Mexico other than the several ordered there to reinforce Admiral Howard at Mazatlan, Acapulco and Topolobampo on Wednesday.

Secretary of War Garrison said that so far as the existing situation was concerned the army remained in statu quo. He denounced a report saying he was seeking to buy ships in England to use as army transports.

SENATORS STAND BY DEMAND FOR SALUTE

Washington, D. C., April 18.—A number of U. S. Senators today are outspoken in reference to the controversy between the United States and Mexico, further complicated by Huerta's counter demand for a simultaneous salute to the U. S. flag. Sen. Shively, Democrat, of Indiana, said:

"There will not be one sign of weakening from the original demand of the United States. As I understand it in our first demand, Admiral Mayo said that the Mexican salute would be returned. That is well enough, and I think we should return it under the ordinary rules of courtesy, but we will not have the terms of the apology we insist upon dictated by General Huerta."

Senator Weeks (Republican), of Massachusetts: "The situation is getting to be precisely like the plot of a comic opera. The most absurd thing of all is the demand by Huerta that we return the salute. It is like a man whose face has been slapped demanding an apology, whereupon the other fellow, who has done the slapping, says, 'All right, I will apologize, but if I do you must thank me for it.' We might offer to supply him with the powder if he will salute us. I am told by friends of mine who have been down there that this Huerta is a most intelligent and educated man, and I can readily believe it, judging from the skill with which he has fenced off our demands."

Representative Murdock, Progressive leader in the House: "If we return a salute to those bandits," said he, "we might as well fire a few guns to the memory of Robin Hood, Rainsford or Jesse James."

Senator Hughes (Democrat), of New Jersey: "We ought to blow that old scoundrel Huerta right off the map. The idea of his attempting to dictate to us in any such way following such an insult! The only thing to do is to use force with all the promptness possible following his refusal to carry out our demands. We have done all the waiting necessary, I think, and it is time for some action to teach that man that it is dangerous to insult Americans and even more dangerous to insult the American flag."

Senator Catron (Republican), of New Mexico: "I don't think there will be any war. Huerta is a smart man and he knows that he cannot fight the United States and the Constitutionists put together. He will give in and yield to our demands, I feel sure, when the time comes."

Senator Kern (Democrat), of Indiana: "I am not in favor of temporizing with Huerta for one moment. The United States needs no suggestions from him."

Senator Martine, Democrat, of New Jersey: "A few shells won't hurt Huerta at all in my opinion. It has got to a point where American people have been trampled upon and walked over until they can't stand it any longer and somebody has got to pay for it. We will have to fight unless Huerta capitulates immediately and completely."

Senator Fall (Republican), of New Mexico: "Huerta has raised himself in my estimation wonderfully by the way he has handled this situation. But the way it has been handled from this end is pitiful, as it strikes me. If the present trend of negotiations continue, before long he will be demanding that we apologize to him, after which the incident will be considered closed. I have not doubted from the start that the sending of the entire fleet to Mexico meant some thing more than the exchange of salutes or any other apology for an insult to the flag."

"Let Huerta salute," said Senator Chilton, "then we will make up our mind about returning the salute."

ARMY DRUNK HORNS GONE

Canton, Ohio, April 18.—Because members of the life corps of Gen. Jacob S. Coxey's army of the "commonweal" traded their instruments for beer, became intoxicated and were jailed by the village marshal in Louisville, Ohio, Gen. Coxey issued an edict against drinking as the army left that village, east of here today, on the third day of the march to Washington.

"I don't belong to the W. C. T. U., but from now on you have either got to cut out the booze or we don't want you along," was the substance of Coxey's address to his troops. "We're marching to Washington to teach the people a great moral lesson, and you'll destroy its effect by getting drunk."

Coxey was pleased by the prediction of a gypsy fortune teller that he would live to be 100 years old, as he was by the increase in the number of his troops to more than a score.

FIGHT CIGARETTES IN CLINTON COUNTY

Levi Mills, Probate Judge of Clinton county, has issued the following statement against the sale of cigarettes to boys:

"We have eighteen persons in Clinton county who are venders of cigarettes, by virtue of a license authorizing them to sell the same; eight in Wilmington, four in Blanchester, two in New Vienna, two in Sabina, one in Midland City and one in Port William.

"Against one of these men, complaint was made by the Superintendent of Schools, that he sold cigarettes to a minor; when brought into the Juvenile Court, he admitted the sale, but attempted to justify the act by saying that, when the sale was made the boy stated that he was eighteen years of age. This may have satisfied the vendor's conscience but could not legalize the sale, in case the boy's declaration proved untrue, as the seller, when he took the statement, did so at his own risk.

"The law concerning the sale of cigarettes to minors, Section 12965 of the General Code of Ohio reads as follows: 'Whoever sells, gives or furnishes to a person under eighteen years of age a cigarette, cigarette wrapper or substitute for either, or a cigar or tobacco, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not less than two days or more than thirty days, or both, and for each subsequent offense, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and imprisoned not less than five nor more than sixty days.' The willful violation of this law is one of the most heartless of misdemeanors.

"I hereby request the Superintendents of Schools in the eight villages in which the sale of cigarettes is licensed, to furnish me, as the Judge of the Juvenile Court, with the names of the boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen who are pupils in the Public Schools, so that the Probation Officer may furnish the vendors of cigarettes with the list. This will be done for the purpose of removing from the boys the temptation to make untrue declarations as to age, and of depriving the vendors of the opportunity of justifying the sale because of the false statements of minors.

"I also ask the editors of the newspapers in these villages to publish this request as their liberal contribution in the interest of our boys."

LEVI MILLS, Probate Judge.

WILL TAKE VOTE ON CENTRALIZATION

The question of centralization of schools in Jefferson township, Greene county, will be settled in a special election on a $50,000 bond issue for centralization building near Bowersville, which will be held April 28. Sentiment is at fever heat over the matter in the village and township, and while the majority of voters are said to be favorable to centralization this matter is the principal subject of conversation in the locality. W. A. McCurdy, state school inspector, spoke on the benefits to be derived from centralization, before a large audience in the M. E. church in Bowersville, this week.

The question of building a township school arose when the old high school in Bowersville was condemned. The school board was also faced to face with the problem of closing three of the nine schools in the township because the average daily attendance was less than twelve, and conveying pupils who attended the schools to other districts.

If centralization is adopted in Jefferson, it will be the first district in Greene county in which this new plan in rural schools is carried out, and the outcome of the election is looked forward to with interest.

B. & O. FOUNDRY TO LEAVE CHILLICOTHE

B. & O. Master Mechanic P. H. Reeves arrived home from a two days' business trip this morning and stated that the local shops foundry will close on Saturday. The "grey iron" foundry will be moved to Newark but the brass foundry remains here, says the Chillicothe Advertiser. The removal of the former means the doing away with ten men's work.

These men can either go to Newark or places will be given them in the local shops, should they care to stay here. There are three men working in the brass foundry. Mr. Reeves gives the following reason for the moving of the foundry: "Some time ago, the B. & O. inquired if the local foundry could make all castings necessary for the C. H. & D. work.

"The local foundry was not able to do this on account of its small size. To take care of C. H. & D. castings it would be necessary to enlarge the local foundry at great expense. At Newark, there is a foundry equipped to care for the castings of the entire C. H. & D. and Southwestern. It is as large as the local erecting shop." There is nothing to replace the foundry removed from the local shop.

Mr. Reeves said that the outlook for the local shops was better this year than it has been since 1910. "We have been given enough money to work our present force of 544 men for 9 hours a day, 6 days a week for an indefinite period."

SPRINGFIELD MAY USE ARGENTINA BEEF

Will Springfield receive any shipments of Argentine beef?

This question will probably be answered by Wednesday, local market dealers say.

The first shipment of the beef to this part of the country arrived in Columbus Wednesday morning. It is already offered for sale.

It can be sold to the retailer at prices around 11 and 11½ cents, while native steers, sold from the same place, must bring 13 and 13½ cents.

There is some physical difference in the beef. Native beef ranges from 600 to 700 pounds, South American cattle range between 750 and 900 pounds. The native beef is slightly finer grained. The average buyer of meat, however, could not tell the two kinds apart, if they were hung side by side in the same stall.

The South American meat is not frozen, when it arrives, as some believe. It comes in the same degree of refrigeration as beef killed in Chicago.—Springfield Sun.

CIRCUS DETECTIVE ACCOMPANIES SHOW

Col. Chas. Hagerman, head of the detective department of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, which comes to Washington Saturday, April 25, for performances at 2 and 8 p. m., is one of the best known circus officers in the world. It is the duty of Col. Hagerman and his assistants to see that no persons of bad repute be allowed to operate in a city where the show is to exhibit.

"The personality of circus men has changed materially for the better in recent years," said Col. Hagerman recently in an interview. "Time was when they invariably wore high silk hats and clothes of many checks and hues. To be without a 'fist' full of 'rocks' or well decorated shirt or necktie was a standing reproach to the profession. Now-a-days the circus man wears little jewelry, and in his attire and speech he differs not from the ordinary person. He surrounds himself with associates of good character and business integrity, and cherishes highly his good standing in the community.

"A generation ago it was the custom to think that circus followers were a bad lot of men. Of course in a small city there are a few bad fellows. There are more than 1,000 employees of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus. It is a little tented city in itself. Now it is but natural to follow that there are a few fellows who are not as good as they should be. As quickly as we discover a dishonest man in our ranks, we eliminate him, and, at the same time we cultivate the honest, conscientious working-man.

"A great many people have an idea that circuses make an enormous profit. Nothing is more erroneous. Our circus is valued at $4,000,000 and if in the fall our books show that we have earned a 10 per cent profit, we are well pleased. The wear and tear is hard; and the death of a single rare animal will eat up the profits of days."

MODEL DIVORCE COURT ESTABLISHED

The first divorce court ever established in Ohio is now in operation at Cleveland. The purpose of this new tribunal is to reduce the number of divorces. The creation of this court comes as a result of a plan put into effect by the common pleas judges of Cuyahoga county, who have designated one of their number, Judge W. B. Neff, to preside over it.

Social workers, church federations and reform organizations generally will watch with keen interest the work of the new court. Many reforms are hoped to be worked out thru this new judicial experiment. Uniformity of divorce legislation, complete investigation of all cases, assuring decrees to only those entitled to them, the holding up of decrees for 60 days and broader definitions of gross neglect and cruelty are some of the reforms planned.

The movement for reform legislation on the divorce question was started by the late Federal Judge Robert W. Taylor, who represented the Eighteenth district, the old McKinley district, in congress for four terms and who resigned a fifth term nomination, when he was in congress. Judge Taylor died in Cleveland some three years ago.

Judge Neff expects to hear from ten to fifteen cases daily. A complete record will be kept of all testimony. In every case where the court suspects there has been collusion or misrepresentation sensation, or where he believes an investigation is necessary, he will call on the county clerk to assign one of his deputies to make a thorough investigation.

If there is any possible chance of effecting a reconciliation between the parties involved in divorce proceedings the court will do all in its power to bring this about. Judge Neff is sanguine over the prospects of being able to accomplish much good through the instrumentality of the new court.—Exchange.

Altered the Case.
"Henry, what is this underworld there is so much talk about?" "The underworld is a general term that is applied to the class which is made up of people who trade on vice and live by criminal practices." "Dear me! Why is such a class permitted to exist?" "Oh, it serves its purpose." "In what way, I should like to know?" "For one thing, if there were no such class I'm afraid I'd have to go out of the law business right away, and I don't know of anything else that I could make a living at." "Well, of course, that being the case, I suppose we ought to look at it sensibly, but I almost wish you had studied to be a doctor."—Chicago Record-Herald.

People who buy Automobiles are tired of windy claims; they relish intelligent analysis. Detroit-r advertising at all times aims at FACTS. It has stated and proved that the Detroit-r is the only popular priced automobile in America that combines a full floating rear axle, able to withstand a ton of overload; a long stroke, 32 horse-power motor; streamline body; platform rear spring (the only type that makes the shock absorber unnecessary;) and expensive, power-conserving, long-lived ball-bearings throughout.

LIVING ON PREPARED FOODS.

A pioneer grocer of an Ohio town has been looking over some old account books and finds that, aside from butter, poultry and meat, staple food articles in bulk are not higher in price than they were 25 years ago.

This old storekeeper has reflected over his old accounts and has concluded that we are not so bad off nowadays as we think. His records run back to "the good old days" when coal oil was 75 cents a gallon and leather boots were $12 a pair.

His figures show conclusively that a man and woman can set up housekeeping today in better shape for the same money than was possible a quarter of a century ago.

He says it is the modern craze for prepared foods done up in attractive packages which has increased the cost of living.

"If people would buy things in bulk, as they used to do, and cook their food for themselves, as they used to do, there would be no high cost of living problems."

The average can of baked beans, he declares, does not contain two cents worth of beans, and the average package of crackers contains little more than four ounces.

If his figures are right, his conclusions are sound. Of course, we cannot have others do our work for us and not pay extra as a result.

The mother who used to do the family sewing—where has she gone? Sewing has almost become a lost art in family life; and dresses and shirts are made by specialists. The good old-fashioned mothers of earlier days who did the cooking, the baking, the sewing, the weaving, the knitting, the nursing, the whole housekeeping, may have been overworked, may have had no thought of suffrage, and may have aged and died early, but they kept down the cost of living.

After all, is it so very important that the cost of living be kept down? Is not abundant and broader life better? Is not emancipation of women from household drudgery more important?—Athens Messenger.

Fixing the Tax Rate

The suggestion which the State Tax Commission has made that the County Budget Commission in each county of the state, call in the officials from each taxing district in the county and invite the public generally to attend a meeting at which the question of receipts and expenditures of the public revenues may be discussed, is a good one.

Heretofore the officials in the various taxing districts have certified to the County Budget Commission, the amount of money which, in their opinion, would be necessary to foot the bills in that district during the year. The Budget Commission then added to such estimates for each district the amount of county and other levies and if in any district the amount of money asked for, plus the county levies and state levies, could not be produced by levying the legal rate on the property listed, then the amount asked for was reduced.

Year after year the County Budget Commission has wrestled with this problem of cutting the needs to meet the resources and in some instances taxing districts have been compelled to go short of money because the funds asked for could not be raised on the property listed and still remain within the tax rate limit.

This year the duplicate is to be increased by the listing of more personal property than was listed last year.

The inclination to cut down the estimates made by the taxing district will not, of course, be as strong as was the actual necessity for it existing when the return was smaller.

Hence the State Tax Commission has wisely suggested that the men who pay the bills—the taxpayers—be asked into the conference. It is believed that the presence of the officials who are asking for money, the taxpayers who must produce the money and the umpires—the Budget Commission—all in one meeting will be productive of much good and encourage the officials who must determine the tax rate to hold the expenditures to the minimum, notwithstanding the resources are increased materially.

The suggestion of a public meeting to which taxpayers may come and at which they may express their views is meeting with approval of the taxing officials and the people generally in every county where it has been discussed.

So far they welcome the idea of bringing the taxpayer into the conference.

There is no more important work than fixing the tax rate and there is no one more interested in that work than the taxpayer.

Why shouldn't he be consulted?

Decline of Infant Mortality Offsets Birth Rate

By Dr. SHIRLEY W. WYNNE of New York Health Department

THERE has undoubtedly been a decline in the birth rate in every civilized country of the world and especially in France, where the BIRTH RATE HAS FALLEN BELOW THE DEATH RATE, but this has been offset to some extent in most other countries by the DECLINE OF INFANT MORTALITY.

IN COMPARING THE BIRTH RATE OF THE SAME COMMUNITY FOR DIFFERENT YEARS THE CRUDE BIRTH RATE IS FOUND FAIRLY SATISFACTORY, FOR IT CAN BE ASSUMED WITH A REASONABLE CERTAINTY THAT THE AGE AND SEX DISTRIBUTION REMAINS CONSTANT. BUT WHEN IT BECOMES NECESSARY TO DRAW A COMPARISON BETWEEN THE BIRTH RATES OF DIFFERENT CITIES OR EVEN OF DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE SAME CITY THE EMPLOYMENT OF THE CRUDE BIRTH RATE AS THE STANDARD OF COMPARISON GIVES RISE TO SERIOUS ERRORS.

Poetry For Today

THE MODERN POLONIOUS.

It never pays to whine, my son;
The world has little time to hear
Complaints from those who have not won

The prizes that are scarce and dear
The man who haunts a gloomy nook
Is never cheered and seldom praised;

Assume an air and try to look
As if your pay had just been raised.

It never pays, my son, to let
Your neighbor see your empty purse,

Nor will it help your case to fret
When things have gone from bad to worse;

When luck deserts you, as it will,
Conceal the fact from foe and friend,

And try to look as if you still
Had money that you wished to spend.

It never pays, my son, to show

That fear is lurking in your breast
When trouble weighs your spirit low

'Tis time to smile your merriest.
I cannot tell you how to strut

With pride when trouble crushes you,

Or how to laugh while grieving, but

I know it is the thing to do.

WEDDING PLANS DISAPPOINTING

Washington, April 18.—The marriage of Miss Eleanor Rudolph Wilson and the secretary of the treasury, William Gibbs McAdoo of New York, will take place in the White House on Thursday, May 7. The announcement was made by the president and Mrs. Wilson. The announcement added:

"In accordance with the wishes of Miss Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, the wedding will be very small; only the vice president and Mrs. Marshall, the cabinet and the immediate members of the two families are to be present."

These plans are disappointing to Washington society, which had hoped for a large and brilliant wedding. It has been known recently, however, that Mrs. Wilson's illness had caused a curtailing of the original plans. It is believed that the ceremony will be performed at noon and by a Presbyterian minister, assisted by an Episcopalian, as the McAdoo family are of the latter faith.

Miss Wilson's trousseau is now practically ready. Miss Wilson herself is at White Sulphur Springs, but she made a trip to Washington last Monday to arrange for the final details of her wedding. The most of the trousseau has been purchased and arranged for in New York.

AROUSES CONGRESS

Washington, April 18.—General Huerta's demand that the United States with Mexico fire a simultaneous salute of 21 guns aroused the strongest feeling in congress against the Mexican dictator that has yet been shown. Many senators and representatives are convinced that Huerta was playing with the United States, and many statements were heard in favor of immediate drastic action on the part of this government. Some members of congress were inclined to believe that Huerta is working solely with a view to uniting the Mexican people behind him in a common cause against the United States.

"The danger of this trifling with a delicate situation is that it will make trouble on the border," said Senator Fall of New Mexico. "Things are in an inflammable condition there and trouble may start up on the border at any time."

COXEY'S ARMY MULE A BALKER

Louisville, O., April 18.—The first act of insubordination in the army of unemployed which General Jacob S. Coxey of Massillon is leading to Washington developed while the army was on its way here from Canton. The mule that draws the phaeton in which Coxey rides balked at crossing an enormous puddle in the road. Only after the general's carrier, David Coxey, 11, had driven his pony through the puddle would the mule proceed. Thereafter it was necessary for David to lead the way. Thirty privates, who compose the army, slept here last night. Alliance is the objective point of the army today.

DIEGEL AND CETONE HELD

Columbus, O., April 18.—Rodney J. Diegel, former senate sergeant-at-arms, will serve his full term of three years in the penitentiary. He was convicted of aiding and abetting in legislative bribery. This was settled when the state board of administration, sitting as board of parole, failed to act on his application. State Senator George K. Cetone's application was continued indefinitely.

A BIGAMIST IS SENTENCED

Newport, R. I., April 18.—Business reverses and the breaking of confidence that he placed in others were the reasons given by the wife of Michael Mahoney, who is held in New York city for his attempt to kill Mayor Mitchel. Mahoney and his wife and five children live in this city.

CHARGE CONTEMPT

Portsmouth, O., April 18.—Attorneys announced that, acting on behalf of the shoe companies here, they had instituted contempt proceedings against a number of the leaders of the striking shoeworkers, and arrests would be made.

TWO ARE DEAD

Cleveland, O., April 18.—John Szor, returned from a six months' visit to Hungary to find that his wife had obtained a divorce in his absence. He killed her by cutting her throat and then, using the same knife, committed suicide.

PRIEST INJURED

St. Marys, O., April 18.—Rev. John M. Sailer, a Catholic priest, was fatally crushed under his automobile, which turned turtle between St. Marys and Wapakoneta.

FOUND DEAD

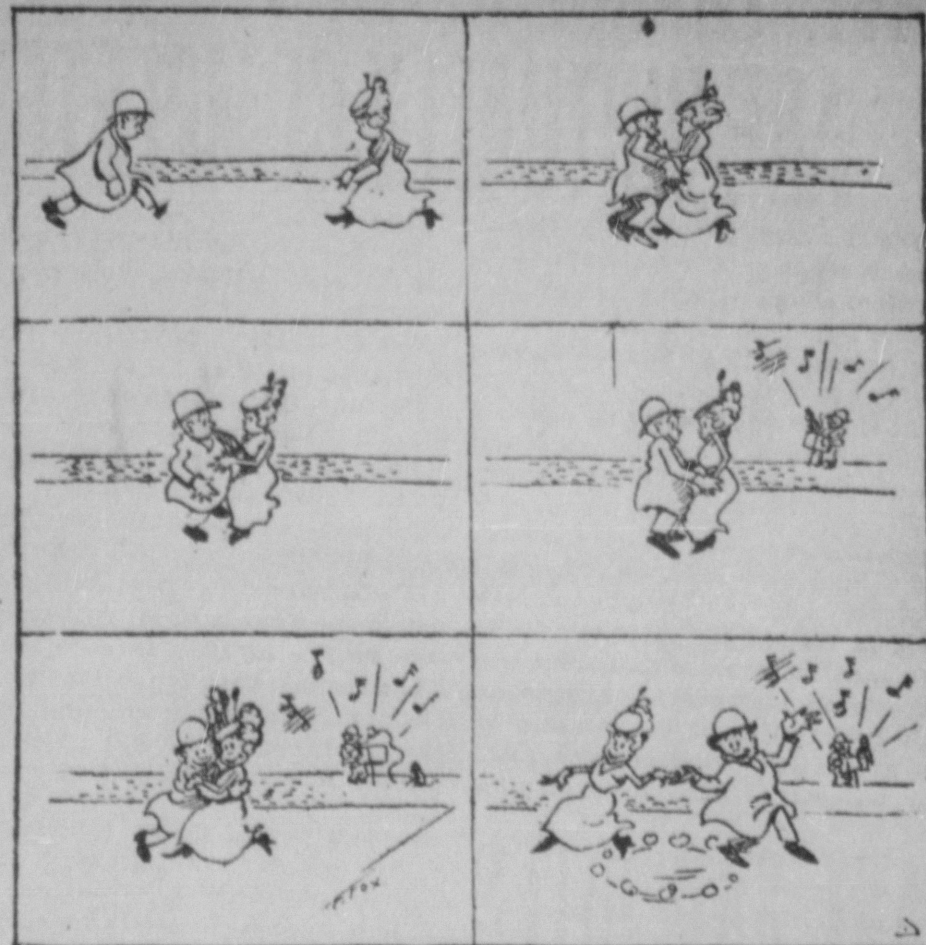

Delaware, O., April 18.—Joseph Perry, 62, a nephew of the late Governor Hoadly, was found dead in bed. Death was due to heart failure.

ARMY MAY NOW BE MADE "DRY"

Surgeon General Gorgas Upholds Daniels' Order.

WILSON NOT CONSULTED.

Revenue Cutter Service Likewise May Be Forced to Eliminate Liquor on Vessels—Possible Modifications in Sweeping Navy Changes Before They Become Effective July 1.

Washington.—William C. Gorgas, the new surgeon general of the army, on his return from South Africa expressed his approval of the order issued by Secretary Daniels forbidding the use of liquor aboard naval vessels and in all navy yards and all naval stations.

Many army officers expressed the opinion that this foreshadows an official order making the army as "dry" as the navy will be when Daniels' new regulation goes into effect on July 1.

Moreover, rumors were in circulation that William G. McAdoo, secretary of the prohibition order, but that it was not necessary for him to do so.

Gorgas, who has been in South Africa installing in the diamond mines sanitary methods similar to those in the Panama canal zone, expressed great interest in the new move made by Secretary Daniels.

He asserted that officers in both branches of the service would be far better off if they never touched liquor.

As surgeon general of the army he is in a position to follow the lead of Surgeon General Braisted of the navy in recommending the abolition of officers' wine messes at army posts.

Secretary Daniels let remarks drop indicating that modifications in the order are likely to be made before it goes into effect July 1.

"There is plenty of time between now and July," said the secretary, "to make any modifications that may seem necessary. But the order will remain absolute to the extent of prohibiting wine messes or the use of intoxicating liquors in officers' quarters, clubs or other kinds of organizations on shipboard or at shore stations."

"I am convinced not only from what I have seen, but from the examination of cases that come before me daily, that many a young officer fresh from the Naval academy learns to touch the first drop in these wine messes, and not infrequently this leads to his dismissal from the service."

SURGEON GENERAL W. C. GORGAS, U. S. A., the treasury, will apply a similar rule to the officers of the revenue cutter service.

It is certain that President Wilson will do nothing to stem the tide of prohibition, the chief executive having indicated his position clearly when he asserted it is a departmental question in which he is not concerned.

FIVE TAXING DISTRICTS ARE VIRTUALLY COMPLETED

District Assessor J. C. Dunn's weekly report to the State Tax Commission, shows a gain of $1,055,380 on 1937 returns, the total amount of the returns being $3,464,785 against $2,409,405 last year.

At the present five taxing districts have been almost completed, and show a total gain of $415,000.

The five districts show the following gain over last year: Concord, $53,000; Green, $50,000; Marion, $121,000; Perry, $67,000 and Fourth ward in Washington, $124,000. The last mentioned gain does not include increase on incorporated companies.

A definite idea of the increase in the five taxing districts since 1912 may be gleaned from the following figures:

Returns in Concord—1912, $265,819; 1913, $288,565; this year $340,790.

Green—1912, $238,290; 1913, $258,900; this year $208,290.

Marion—1912, $263,820; 1913, $311,926; this year $428,660.

Perry—1912, $249,100; 1913, $254,810; this year, $291,820.

Fourth ward—1912, $187,185; 1913, $179,025; this year, $308,670.

It will be seen in the above figures that in the Fourth ward, the returns were smaller in 1913 than in 1912.

The coming week is expected to be a busy one among the assessors, and other taxing districts will probably be finished during the coming week.

LAST SAD RITES LARGELY ATTENDED

Grace church held a finely representative gathering of foremost citizens, leading business and professional men, as well as a large number of relatives and friends from all over the county for the funeral services of Mr. Josiah Hopkins.

The city banks were all closed during the hour of the funeral, Mr. Hopkins having been vice-president of the Midland National bank, and held in high regard by the banking fraternity, and but few, if any, business houses of the city but were represented.

Attending in a body were the men of Mr. Hopkins' Sunday School class, the Gardner Memorial class, and the young women of the Sunday school class of his daughter, Mrs. Eva J. Penn.

At two o'clock, while plaintive strains came from the organ, the flower-covered casket was borne down the aisle, to rest amid a bower of flowers, during the impressive service.

It was a service in perfect accord with the life of the quiet sleeper, unostentatious and beautiful in its simplicity.

Rev. F. E. Ross, Mr. Hopkins' pastor, had charge of the services, assisted by Rev. W. B. Gage of the Presbyterian church.

A quartet, Miss Edith Gardner, Miss Lulu Larrimer, Messrs. Jos. E. Mark and Chas. Dalbey sang tenderly hymns that were especially appropriate, "We'll Think of the Home Over There," and "Shall We Gather at the River." Mrs. Frank Blessing was the organist.

The pastor followed a few brief words of memoir with a heartsome tribute.

Referring to the well known figure and quiet, genuine life of "Father Hopkins," as he was so often called, the pastor suggested that his passing brought to mind a number of passages from the Bible, which seemed to show that it was the divine intent for man to be spared to reach a ripe age. Rev. Ross said in part: "Conditions of today do not conduce to old age; many untoward things step in to shorten the period of human life, and there is a spirit of skepticism which regards old age as an evil to be feared, as one skeptic expresses it, 'Old age puts more wrinkles upon the spirit than upon the body.' A life like Father Hopkins' was a protest against all such notions of old age; it proved that old age is one of God's choicest gifts; it is in itself a confirmation of God's words, 'The hoary head is a crown of glory if it be found in the way of righteousness.' No man was more worthy of respect as a citizen, business associate or friend, yet the community cannot think of Father Hopkins without immediately recalling his calm Christian character.

Mr. Hopkins was a man in whom the home instinct was developed to an unusual degree. He deeply loved his home and family, and his affection was most fully reciprocated.

He was a modest man, not giving his views needless prominence, but holding with dignified reticence to his own ideas. He attended church services with remarkable regularity, and, even when he could not hear, the alertness of his face and attitude showed that he was in tune with the spirit of the service.

So quiet, so unaffected, so devoted to every worthy influence, Father Hopkins leaves behind him positive testimony for the Christian life. As we leave the world it is not what people say of us, but what we are that counts. Such a life as the one which has just passed over to his coronation will live in the lives of his children and grand-children and for years to come the community will gratefully cherish the memory of this good man.

The quartet sang, "In the Sweet By and By" in closing.

Many relatives and friends accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery for the last services on the family lot.

The pall-bearers were the two sons, Austin F. and Scott Hopkins, two grand-sons, Ralph Penn and Edwards Hopkins, son-in-law, Walter Hamilton, and brother, David Hopkins.

The floral remembrances were very beautiful and in great number such a tribute of flowers as is seldom seen except in case of a public man or one having many affiliations. Besides the profusion sent by friends and relatives there were a number of special designs from the family. "Gates Ajar," in roses, lilies and rare flowers, with a dove holding the green twig, suggestive of peace, "after the storm is past"; a superb basket of violets and lilies of the valley from the Grand lodge, O. E. S., of Ohio, of which Mrs. Eva J. Penn was grand worthy matron during the past year; a large wreath from the Washington Milling Co., and beautiful basket of tulips from the employees; very handsome basket yellow roses from Midland National bank; casket spray shaded pink carnations, Gardner Memorial class; yellow rose spray, Grace M. E. church; wreath of carnations, Presbyterian session; spray white roses and carnations, Mrs. Eva J. Penn's Sunday School class; spray snap dragons, the M. H. G. class; wreath of roses, the Kensington club; pink roses, the Monday

PLANS OF COMMITTEE ARE ADOPTED BY CHURCH BOARD

An important meeting of the official board of Grace M. E. church was held in the parlors of the church Friday night.

The principal business of the evening was to hear and act upon the report of the committee appointed a few weeks ago to make a general survey of overhauling and redecorating the church, and the recommendations of the committee were unanimously adopted.

It is understood that it is the intention to clean and redecorate all of the walls and ceiling; clean and varnish all woodwork; install a new and modern lighting system so that the light will be just as great but not so painful to the eyes of the congregation, minister and choir, and to enlarge the choir loft so that considerable more room is available. A suitable carpet for the auditorium will also be purchased, it is understood, and a modern vacuum cleaner will be purchased to take care of the carpets properly.

The work in question, it is understood, will begin about June 1st, and be finished before the annual conference which assembles here late in September.

During the time the church is undergoing repairs and changes, Sunday school will probably be held in the Sunday school rooms of the church, while preaching services will be held elsewhere, probably in the auditorium of the High school building.

When the changes are completed, the big church will present a much more attractive appearance.

club.

The family very fully appreciated the flowers and many kindnesses attendant upon the death of Mr. Hopkins. Those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mrs. Phoebe Peterson and son, Luther, of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopkins, of Chillicothe; Mrs. Nolan Hathaway, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rodgers; Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rogers, of Bloomingburg; Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alkire, of Mt. Sterling; Messrs. Benjamin and Alex. Darbyshire, of Sabina; Mrs. Ella Stewart and son, Harry, of Parkhurst; Messrs. Barr and Graves of Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Eyman, of Fairview.

ONLY FOUR CONGRESSMEN VOTE AGAINST

Washington, D. C., April 18.—A majority of the Ohio delegation yesterday voted in the House in favor of changing the present allowance of 20 cents a mile to a sum of actual expense. The "actual expense" system includes allowances for the dependent members of each member's family.

Representatives Ansberry, Bulkley, Claypool and Post voted against the change in system, taking the position generally that the present allowance of 20 cents a mile not only is not a "graft," but does not begin to cover the expenses of travel which a Congressman must incur if he does those things which are required of him because he holds the position of Congressman.

Those voting in favor of the change in system are Allen, Ashbrook, Bathrick, Bowdle, Drumbaugh, Fess, Francis, Sherwood, Switzer, White, Willis and Gard. Those not voting were Gordon, Whitacre, Sharp, Crosser, Goeke and Key.

The House struck the mileage allowance for Congressmen out of the legislative appropriation bill.

ANNUAL ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE FIELD DAY

Tomorrow is the annual Anti-Saloon League Field Day, and will be observed by churches all over the county.

It will be a notable day in this city and three of the strongest speakers of the Anti-Saloon League will be here.

At Grace church Rev. J. K. Rutledge, whose fame as a speaker is nationwide, will fill the pulpit during the morning service.

Hon. Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, will fill the pulpit at the Presbyterian church for the morning services.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the annual county mass meeting will be held at Grace church, with Hon. Fred K. Landis, ex-Congressman from Indiana, and Supt. Wayne B. Wheeler speaking on temperance work; the progress made in the work during the past year and the big fight still ahead.

In the other churches of the city and county, appropriate sermons will be preached by the various pastors.

INSTITUTE OFFICERS WILL MEET APRIL 30

The State Agricultural Commission has invited farmer institute officers and persons who want an institute in their community to meet C. R. Wagner at the Court House in this city on Thursday, April 30, at 10 a. m.

At this conference, the time and place of holding institutes, making program, advertising, items of legal expense and manner of conducting institutes, will be discussed.

Increased demand for these meetings will undoubtedly result in many new places being given an institute next season.

The extent of assistance given to independent institutes and farmer club lecture course will be taken up. Mr. Wagner, Assistant Director of Farmer Institutes, will represent the State Commission.

LECTURE COURSE COMMITTEE NAMED

The new committee of the Washington Lecture course has been named to succeed the former committee, and an early meeting of the committee will be held to decide upon another course for the coming year.

The new committee, appointed Friday night, is composed of Messrs. Wm. McClain, Fred Mark, Ray May-

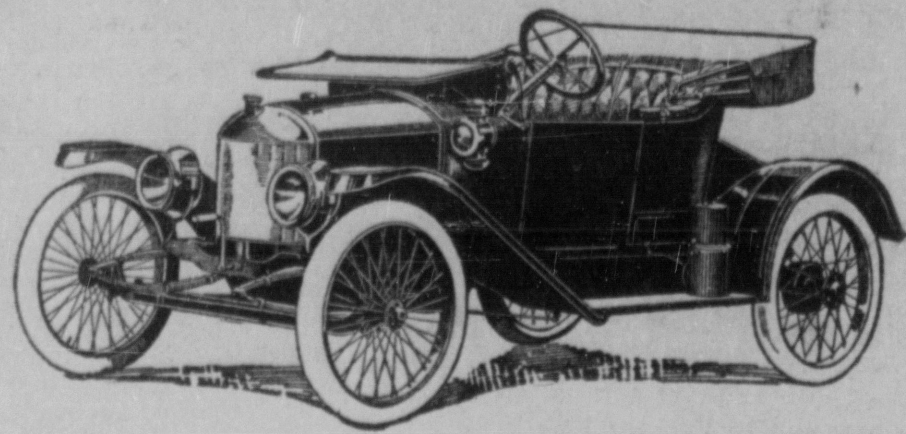

GRANT

THE FIRST STANDARD HIGH GRADE MOTOR CAR TO BE SOLD UNDER $500

The Grant car will be owned and driven by men of every class. Never before has a car been brought out which would suit both the pocketbook of the man of moderate income and the critical taste of the man of means.

Cheap cars have, and will be produced, which run fairly well, but they have borne the unmistakable cheap car stamp, and every man who could afford to (and many who could not) have willingly paid the higher prices asked for other cars for the sake of driving a car they could be proud of.

But even if you are worth a million you can be proud to drive a Grant.

Look at the car—distinctive appearing, speedy, comfortable, dependable—the last word in body design and mechanical construction.

It is a car that anyone can be proud to drive and—this is important—Anyone can afford to.

You may spend one, two, even three thousand dollars for a car and not buy more of the essential features of a high grade motor car than you can get in a Grant for $495. Check it up for yourself and see.

Appearance—where can you buy at any price, a finer appearing car than the Grant? There is the same bull nose radiator, tapered hood, sweeping fenders, streamline body, low rakish appearance, that you will find on the highest priced imported cars.

Power—there is power enough under the hood of a grant car to carry you through the deepest mud or sand, or up the steepest hill you will ever encounter. That is all the power a car should have to be efficient.

Speed—50 miles an hour the Grant car will go—without urging—with practically no vibration or side sway. It is perfectly balanced.

Comfort—the comfort of the Grant car is a revelation. Nothing like it has ever been known in moderate priced car construction. It rides the bumps as smooth as the sway of a hammock. A day's touring over the roughest country in a grant car will bring no fatigue.

Reliability—the same high test materials, the same precision in machine work are used in Grant construction that are used in building cars costing five times as much. Repair bills have been practically eliminated.

Economy—30 miles to the gallon is the Grant gasoline consumption. The light weight enables the tires to give twice the ordinary mileage, and it only costs about forty dollars to replace the whole set. No car ever made has even approached the Grant in the matter of economy of operation.

Equipment—every necessary article of equipment from the top to the tail lamp is included in the price—$495.

Are we right? Are there any other essentials that a high priced car offers you, that you can't get in the Grant?

Think it over.

The evening's work was admirably conducted by the President, Mrs. Anna Rodgers, and the beautiful flag service added impressiveness.

MAMMOTH CLASS TAKES EXAMINATION

What is said to be the largest class of pupils ever taking the Boxwell-Patterson examination in this county, at one time, has enrolled for the first examination which was held at the High school building in this city Saturday.

The examination next month will be the last of the Boxwell examinations, as the new school laws eliminate the examinations and make other provision to take the place of the present tests.

CHANGE IN TIME ON B. & O. EVENING TRAIN POSSIBLE

Washington citizens now have the opportunity of securing a change in time on B. & O. passenger train No. 107, due in this city from Columbus at 6:14 each evening. But immediate action will be necessary, and those who desire the change in time must get busy and let it be known that such a change is desired.

There has been considerable agitation to secure a change in time on the west-bound evening train, in order that local citizens attending the matinees, ball games, and other entertainments, may not be compelled to leave before the end of the entertainment in order to catch the evening train.

At present the train leaves Columbus at five o'clock, but it is stated with authority that a change of 40 or 45 minutes in the time the train leaves Columbus, may be obtained, so that it will leave Columbus near 5:45 each evening.

The only requirement necessary to secure the change in time is that those favoring it let the fact be known in order that the general passenger agent may know that the people really desire the change.

A new time card will soon be out on the B. & O., and if those favoring the change will get busy at once, the change will be made when the new time card becomes effective.

One plan suggested is that one of the prime movers for the change in time, prepare a petition directed to the general passenger agent and secure names of those desiring the change.

to be of far more good to the city.

It is suggested that a fund be formed for the purpose of lending financial aid in bringing conventions, gatherings of various organizations, etc., to the city, such as the Spanish War Veterans, the Grange and conventions of various orders. This would be better for business and for the city, being one of the best methods of advertising what Chillicothe has to offer.

It has practically been decided to bring to an early close a contest that is now running in this city, and it is the purpose of the Association to oppose such contests in the future. —Chillicothe Advertiser.

BASE BALL SEASON OPENS TO-MORROW

The local baseball season will be opened tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock under what now promises to be, favorable weather conditions.

Local fans since the first appearance of baseball weather have been anxious for the arrival of the day when the season at the local park would be opened with appropriate ceremonies and one of the most welcome features of the opening day ceremonies would be a victory for the local team. It is expected too.

Manager Noon announces that his team is fit and ready and that Reno will probably be accorded the honor of pitching the opener.

The opponents of the Athletics in tomorrow's game will be the Elite team of Springfield.

The visitors come well recommended and numbers in the line-up some individuals with a reputation of being high-class ball tossers. The team has never been seen in action here and consequently is somewhat of an unknown quantity.

Our boys after rigid and faithful training under Manager Noon's directions are reported to be in good condition and working well together and as a consequence no matter how good the visitors are individually or collectively they will be compelled to deliver a high-class article of baseball to travel with the local team.

The grounds are in fine condition and all the arrangements for the spectators' comfort and convenience have been provided.

Last year the Athletics enjoyed a very successful season both from an artistic and financial standpoint.

Both players and manager are imbued with a spirit of courage and confidence which means much for the playing end of the game.

The players are full of ginger and anxious for the first conflict.

Washington has patronized the Athletics liberally and the management has promised not only a continuation of the high-class baseball playing, but this season will see teams representing a larger number of cities; that the one cause for objection last year—too much sameness in opponents—will not exist this season.

The teams will line up for tomorrow as follows:

Washington—Jones, cf; Thompson, 2b; Corwin, ss; Witterd, 1b; Adams, rf; Smith, 1b; Wilke, 3b; Hagerty, c; Reno, Frayne or Runnells, p.

Springfield Elites—Copas, c; Yokum, p; Thospie, ss; Driscoll, 1b; Fisher, 2b; Snyder, 3b; Shaefer, rf; Brosky, cf; Weider, lf.

MOTOR BUS STICKS IN PUBLIC ROAD

The Jeffersonville, to South Charleston motor bus stuck fast in the public road near the John Fent home, one day this week, and remained where it was for most of the night, while jacks were used to lift the heavy bus from the deep ruts and place it upon terra firma.

The big wheels went down up to the axle, according to reports from Jeffersonville. The road is reported to be in very bad condition north of Jeffersonville.

BIDS FOR NEW SCHOOL OPENED

Some twelve or fifteen bidders were represented in the scramble to secure the contract for the new centralized school building at Atlanta, the bids being opened Friday.

The lowest bid was a little more than $25,000, but the contract was not awarded at the time bids were opened.

MERCHANTS WILL FIGHT CONTESTS

The Retail Merchants' Association is preparing to take action on the question of entering into the many "contests" and fake advertising schemes which are brought here by outside people and foisted upon the public. The Association will hold a meeting next Wednesday evening and will probably adopt a resolution to the effect that members will not engage in, patronize or encourage such enterprises.

They hold that such contests do the business men little, if any, good, and that they are worked by people who are looking only for their own profit and not for the good of the merchants or of the city. The money that is put into these contests, they think, could be expended so as

Judge Holds That Cruelty to Animals Is a Crime.

CHARGE IN VIVISECTION CASE

Declares That a Person Guilty of Cruel Treatment to an Animal, Even Though the Torture Be Done For Scientific Purposes, Is a Violator of the Law—Outcome of Case Awaited With Interest.

Philadelphia, April 18.—An important interpretation of Pennsylvania law on vivisection was made in the trial of Dr. Joshua E. Sweet, charged with wanton cruelty to dogs after operations, when Judge F. Amedee Brey, in addressing the jury in this criminal court, declared that a person that is guilty of wanton cruel torture of an animal shall be guilty of a crime, even though the cruel treatment be done for scientific purposes.

Dr. Sweet is assistant professor of surgical research in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania and has been on trial for three days. Five other members of the medical faculty of the university are also under indictment for alleged cruel treatment of dogs after operations, and the trial of their cases depends upon the outcome of the proceedings against Dr. Sweet.

The jury retired Friday evening and court adjourned until Monday morning. If a verdict is reached in the meantime it will be sealed and returned when court reconvenes.

Judge Brey's interpretation of the laws of Pennsylvania on the matter of vivisection is said to be the first ever made in the state. In his charge to the jury he said:

"To indicate a view on the part of physicians that these operations upon dogs were made for scientific purposes, to obtain information for the alleviation of human suffering, I charge you that the law of Pennsylvania does not allow pain and suffering, torment or torture to be inflicted upon dogs for any purpose except the relief of the suffering of the dog itself. They have no right to torture a dog or violate the law as I have read it to you for the purpose of obtaining scientific information."

VILLA STOPS TO SELL HIS PLUNDER

El Paso, Tex., April 18.—Advices were received here that General Villa had returned from the San Pedro fight and would proceed to Chihuahua for a conference with Carranza, thence to Juarez on official business.

The most urgent official business Villa has at the border is the disposal of the great quantity of cotton which he has seized in the Laguna district and which he is anxious to sell.

Upon his arrival at Torreon, Villa is said to have announced that there would be no further campaigning by the rebels in pursuit of the federals until his main force is withdrawn to Torreon for rest, new uniforms and new equipment. Villa announced that his next engagement would be at Monterey.

ANDERSON TO GET IN

Mahoning Statesman May Seek Republican Nomination.

Columbus, O., April 18.—D. F. Anderson of Youngstown, members of the constitutional convention, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in 1912 and supporter of Roosevelt before but not after the renomination of Taft, is here seeking counsel of local friends whether to become a candidate for United States senator. He admitted he is thinking of entering the senatorial contest, but he has not yet pursued that thought to a definite conclusion. He is touring about the state, or parts of it, to examine the track and to discern how good the running may be.

John J. Lentz, another prospective senatorial candidate, but for the Democratic nomination, is back from Honolulu, where he went just after announcing he would make a campaign as soon as he returned.

He said he had been too busy this week to think about campaigning, but thought the water was fine. He intimated he would get in next week and that it would be no timid September Morn wading act, but he would jump in with a big splash.

State Chairman Walter F. Brown was a visitor at Progressive state headquarters. Petitions for Arthur L. Garfield for United States senator and James R. Garfield for governor were delayed in the printers' shops, but will be in circulation the first of the week.

FLARE-UP OVER BUST OF KAISER

Paris, April 18.—The incident growing out of the desire of Herr Bezner, a German sculptor, who has lived 15 years in Paris, to exhibit a bust of the emperor of Germany at the exposition of the Salon des Artistes Français, which opens on April 30, has been reopened. The authorities of the salon had induced Herr Bezner to say that he would not send in the bust, as it might lead to some unpleasantness. The German sculptor has now changed his mind and decided to send it in. As Herr Bezner is the winner of three medals he is not compelled to submit his work to a jury, but the secretary of the salon declares that the committee is still entitled to decide on the fitness of any exhibit which is liable to cause a manifestation.

FORD EXTENDS PROFIT SHARING

The hours of the workmen have been reduced from 10 to eight. The earnings of the men over 22 years will be 1 shilling and 3 pence (30 cents) an hour. Women and boys also receive substantial increases in their wages. About 1,300 persons will benefit by the scheme.

HAVE IDENTIFIED WOULD-BE SLAYER

New York, April 18.—In an attempt to take the life of Mayor John Purroy Mitchell, Michael P. Mahoney, an apparently irresponsible man of 71, who later said he is a blacksmith out of work, fired into a group of three men seated in the mayor's automobile, which stood at the east side of City Hall park. The bullet from his revolver entered the jaw of Corporation Counsel Frank L. Polk, who was sitting next to the mayor in the tonneau of the automobile, and with blood spurting from his mouth, Mr. Polk was taken into an antechamber in the city hall and afterwards to the New York hospital, where it was said that the wound would not prove fatal.

Mahoney shot at the mayor, he declared in the course of a disjointed statement, because he felt aggrieved at the city executive's "extravagant expenditures," and because he was incensed at being turned back from the door of the mayor's room in the city hall on two occasions this week when he came to apply for a municipal job.

Mahoney fired only one shot at the mayor and his party. Before he could fire a second, he was overpowered by Detective George Neun, who in the capacity of chauffeur was adjusting robes about the men in the automobile, and the revolver was wrenched out of Mahoney's hand. The mayor sat in the middle of the back seat, with Mr. Polk on his right and George V. Mullan, the mayor's former law partner, on his left. The bullet passed so close to Mayor Mitchell that the left side of his face was scorched. Standing within a few feet of Mahoney was Police Commissioner Arthur H. Woods, who was waiting for the chauffeur to get into the car, intending to sit beside the driver after the latter was seated.

REDS LOSE TO THE CUBS

Cincinnati, O., April 18. — Two three-baggers in the first inning, coupled with two bases on balls, gave the Chicago Cubs three runs, a lead that the Cincinnati Reds could not overcome, and the visitors won. The final score was 6 to 5. Both sides used three pitchers. Although Cincinnati outbatted Chicago, the latter's hits came at opportune times and counted most. The score:

SPORT LETTER

Cincinnati, April 18, 1914.

With a majority of the teams in the two major leagues staterd on their way in the 1914 fight for the pennant, base ball enthusiasts all over the land will now have their box score and their percentage table regularly on their daily menu. The opening games of Tuesday carry no significance with them, further than to emphasize the fact that base ball promises to be more popular than ever this year. Here in Cincinnati the followers of the game have been worked to an extraordinary pitch of enthusiasm over the methods that have been pursued in assembling and developing that talent that is to comprise the Reds this year. No claims are made for the team, so far as position is concerned; but those who have seen the boys perform so far unhesitatingly pronounce the brand of base ball offered to be of a higher class than any shown by a local aggregation in recent years. The only question about the tem is its mechanical strength; intellectually and in the matter of leadership the Reds of 1914 measure up with any aggregation that has represented Cincinnati on the diamond in the past twenty years.

No team in the National League offers more opportunities for study than the Reds of this season. The many changes that have been made in the line-up add much interest to the general performances of the team this year. The engagement of Herzog as manager and shortstop; the advent of Bert Niehoff at third; Herb Moran in right field, Gonzales and Von Kolnitz behind the bat, the string of new pitchers, including Earl Mingling and Jack Rowan, and the several new infielders and outfielders who are trying for utility jobs, add much to the zest which usually accompanies the study of the early work of a team. These youngsters will be used as much as possible in the early games in order that Manager Herzog may get a correct line on them and not turn any adrift who later may develop into stars. So the patrons of early games will have the opportunity of seeing many youngsters in action—youngsters who have come up as stars from other leagues, and who have demonstrated their right to thorough tryouts before their status finally is fixed.

Following Hank O'Day's aggregation the Pirates, led by Fred Clark, will come to town, they being the first Sunday attraction of the season, scheduled for a Sabbath encounter on April 19, and again on May 3, the St. Louis team, also with a changed map, having the intervening Sunday, April 26. The Pirates, since last seen here, have relieved St. Louis of Ed Konetchy, Mike Lowrey and Pitcher Bob Harmon, and have given the Cards in exchange Hans Niller, Dolan, Chief Wilson and a pair of pitchers. The Pirates also have developed an outfielder by the name of Kelly and several battery men, so that they may cut more ice than expected.

If all the horses which are still eligible for the Kentucky Derby, to be run at Louisville on May 9, were to start in that race it would mean that just about half a million dollars worth of horse-flesh would line up against the barrier on that memorial occasion. It is doubtful that ever before in the history of the American turf so much valuable thoroughbred material was entered in one race as in this event. Six horses entered in that race alone have a value of $145,000, these being Old Rosebud, $40,000; Ralph, $25,000; and Hodge, Bradley's Choice, Black Tony and Boots and Saddles at $20,000 each. The other horses entered, to the number of about thirty, will swell the grant total to about $500,000. Some money, eh?

Those California fight promoters are beginning to do a little shaking in the vicinity of their anxieties for the reason that the women in the Golden State, now that they have learned to vote, are looking for other opportunities to break into print, and feel that they have found one rare chance in the fighting game. Efforts now are being made to block this proposed opposition by having a Fight Commission appointed, modeled after those of New York and Cincinnati, thereby legalizing the game to the extent of preventing any outside interference so long as the battles are properly conducted.

English sporting men are criticising Sir Thomas Lipton rather severely because of the radical departure he has taken in connection with the coming races for the America's cup. Instead of selecting one of the tried, and sometimes successful, professional skippers to take charge of the Shamrock IV, the Irish baronet has decided to entrust the new boat into the hands of one of the many amateur sailors of Great Britain, P. Burton. Sir Thomas Lipton's answer to the criticisms is that no professional ever won the cup for him, and for that reason he's going to try an amateur. Why not try an amateur boat builder, also?

ODE TO A NICKEL.

O nickel, what a lonely place would be this world of ours were it bereft of thee! Of all the minted flock that yearly flies Across this land you only are my size. Without thee I would cheerless go my way. Nor hamburgs would I munch at close of day. The street car which at midnight takes me home Would rattle on without me; I would roam About ice-creamless, poolless, shineless, too. If some wise statesman had not thought of you. Fair nickel, all the moving picture shows Without your aid would shrivel up and close; The gum trust would be busted, in the lurch; The contribution plate that's passed at church Would not weigh half so much; the tightwad's yell At the hiccotolling soon would swell Beyond belief. Thou art the poor man's bread. The rich man's quick excuse when he is For shekels. And had I but saved your kind Within my empty pockets I might find The dough which now I lack. My sorry fate Might now be wreathed in smiles which would replace The clouded brow at this financial pickle I am in, O nickel!

Fire Terms in Japan.

Fires in Japan are so common that this destructive agency has established itself as a national institution, and a whole vocabulary has grown up to express every shade of meaning in matters fiery. The Japanese language has special terms for an incendiary fire, an accidental fire, fires starting from one's own house, a fire caught from next door, a fire which one shares with others, a fire which is burning to an end, the flame of a fire, anything—for instance, a brazier, from which a fire may arise; the side from which to attack a fire in order to extinguish it; a visit of condolence after a fire.—London Mail.

MAWSON WEDS GIRL WOODED BY WIRELESS

Antarctic Explorer Has Had Many Thrilling Experiences.

Melbourne.—Dr. Douglas Mawson, the antarctic explorer, who has just returned from a trip during which his two companions lost their lives and made his way back to the base after thirty days of suffering in blizzards, was married to Miss Delprat, daughter of a mine owner.

The couple became engaged in 1911, when Miss Delprat was nineteen years of age and before Dr. Mawson started on the last expedition. They exchanged love messages by wireless while the doctor was in the antarctic.

The south pole was not Dr. Mawson's goal. He aimed at the exploration of the vast coast line of the antarctic which was discovered by the American, Captain Wilkes, seventy years ago and named after him. The party returned to Adelaide, Australia, on Feb. 27 of this year. The scientific results of the expedition are said to be very valuable. Besides the mapping out of newly discovered lands, extraordinary marine fauna were discovered at a depth of two miles and copper deposits and a vast coal bed were also found.

Dr. Mawson was born at Bradford, England, in 1882. He holds the position of lecturer in geology in the University of Adelaide.

BOOMS TEDDY TO HEAD BULL MOOSE

By Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 18.—Senator Miles Polindexter, of Washington, launched a boom for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as the Presidential candidate of the Progressive party in 1916 in a speech delivered here today before the Indiana Progressive State Convention. The Senator, after an elaborate discussion and attack upon the Democratic and Republican parties declared the Progressive's Presidential nominee would have the support of the great mass of the people. The Democratic administration, he said, had not dealt effectually with current national or international questions because it was bound by "an unfortunate sectional issue." He denounced particularly President Wilson's stand for repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal Act.

"The Progressive party is fortunate in having in its ranks and as its principal leader Theodore Roosevelt," said the Senator. "He has the prestige of his record in the presidency. Should he be nominated by the Progressives, as he probably will be, for the Presidency, he will have the support of the great mass of the members of the Republican party, because they are progressive."

"The Progressive party puts forward the proposition that the activities and agencies of the Federal government must be enlarged and extended. Private monopoly is nationwide and cannot be restrained or controlled by the individual states. The Democratic party and the Republican party are both opposed to this proposition. The one because it is jealous of the power of the states, and the other because it is opposed to further governmental interference with the great corporations."

"The policy of the Republican organization is illustrated by the declaration of Senator Lodge in the Senate a few days ago that his politics stopped at the water's edge; when he urged that foreign and international questions should be settled upon their merits, implying that in domestic matters, however vital their concern might be to the prosperity and even to the lives of our citizens, he would play politics and decide them upon a basis of party expediency and advantage rather than upon the basis of the public welfare."

"The Democratic party, like the Republican party, contains great numbers of progressives, still, is bound hand and foot by an unfortunate sectional issue which impedes and cripples it as a governing power from dealing effectively with current national and international questions. The racial question sits like an incubus upon its political activities, with complete control of the government it perpetuated the caucus system; denied the appeals of women; and hastened, like a disorderly rout, back to the spoils of patronage and the flesh pots of political success."

"The Progressive Party does not believe in distorting the language of a treaty and deprive the people of the benefit of the Panama Canal. It remains for the Democratic party, having voted for the tolls exemption, approved it in their national platform and on the stump, to now propose to surrender the sovereignty of this most costly of all the American possessions to the whims, caprice, and sordid interests of foreign countries and domestic railroad lines. This whim as expressed is nominally based upon Article VIII of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. That treaty was made in 1850. In 1847 Great Britain seized in defiance of the Monroe Doctrine Greytown, the American terminus of the proposed canal which was to be located at Nicaragua. Article VIII of that treaty provided that the United States and Great Britain should jointly promote and protect not only an inter-oceanic canal, but an inter-oceanic railway."

"Shylock England claims the heart of our system, and says it is nominated in the bond. She is generous enough, however, to say that she will not claim any greater privileges in the canal than we ourselves enjoy."

"Since the first railway was built to the Pacific coast the people of this country, east and west, have labored under the extortionate charges of a rail road rate policy which levied upon traffic all that it would bear. For 20 years many of the cities of that coast have litigated before the Interstate Commerce Commission and in the courts for relief from the discrimination and overcharges of this system."

"Now, just as they are about to come into the enjoyment of this competitive transportation line, the cup is dashed from their lips by the Democratic party, in repudiation of its platform and pledges and in surrender of our international self-respect."

"Now it is proposed in pursuance of the same futile policy to pay $25,000,000 of the people's money to the Republic of Colombia presumably to buy its good will. There seems to be a mania in this administration for making treaties. It is urged as a basis of peace. As a matter of fact, they are the source of controversy and disagreement leading to unfriendly rather than peaceful relations. This proposal of $25,000,000 to Colombia is nothing but an unwarranted raid upon the American treasury. The Province of Panama had severed its connection with the Republic of Panama when the United States purchased from it the Canal Zone. We did not inuence or foment its hostility or its secession from the larger republic. Its hostility was traditional. It has been looted and sucked of its substance by Colombia since the first French Canal company made its appearance on the isthmus."

"The Progressive party now has an opportunity given to but few human agencies to render a service to liberty, to democracy, and to mankind by preserving the Panama Canal from the unwarranted demands and influence of either foreign power or private domestic monopoly."

MOTHER JONES MAY BE HEARD IN WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., April 18.—Mother Jones may have a hearing before the House Committee, investigating the Colorado coal strike.

Chairman Foster made this announcement today after receiving a request for the hearing by officials of the United Mine Workers. Her testimony may be taken here next week.

WORKHOUSE DELIVERY DISCOVERED IN TIME

Chief Canady, of Xenia, frustrated a cleverly laid scheme for a general dash for liberty among prisoners at the Xenia workhouse, a day or two ago, and probably prevented a bloody affray before the affair accompanying the dash for liberty.

Chief Canady picked up two men who had been released from the works and they confessed knowledge of the plot, stating that a scheme had been formed and was about to be executed. Supt. Crow of the workhouse, was notified, and nipped the plot in the bud, arresting the prime mover in the plot, who had just been released.

A number of prisoners from this city would have been among those in the dash for liberty.

NAVAL BILL LOOMING UP

Washington, D. C., April 18.—The House has started on passage the naval appropriation bill, providing for the building of two additional superdreadnaughts, six torpedo destroyers and eight submarines.

This program of construction for naval offense and defense may be changed with developments in the Mexican situation. It is considered to be significant that the naval bill should be thrown into the House at this time.

It will be two weeks before the bill is passed. It is expected that before final action is taken in the House on the naval increase the members will know of the needs of this country for naval strength.

The total appropriation carried in the bill submitted to the House yesterday is $139,964,333, about $1,000,000 less than last year's appropriation bill, when but one battleship was authorized.

In an attempt to discount the effect of public sentiment in favor of the navy, Chairman Padgett announced that at no time was the Naval Affairs Committee opposed to the construction of two battleships, the question of the committee being one of holding down expenditures.

MOOSE PAPERS IN; MASSIE QUILTS RACE

Columbus, Ohio, April 18.—Petitions for the nomination of James R. Garfield for governor and for Arthur L. Garford for United States Senator were forwarded from Progressive state headquarters to the various counties in Ohio. Today, so Chairman Walter F. Brown stated, there will be additional announcements of candidacies.

Former Senator D. Mead Massie, of Chillicothe, has made clear that he has abandoned all efforts to become the nominee for the governorship, saying: "I am merely a private citizen." G. W. C. Perry confirmed his withdrawal from further consideration.

New York, April 18.—Michael P. Mahoney, gray haired crank, who yesterday attempted to assassinate Mayor Mitchell, and in so doing wounded Frank L. Polk, was arraigned in the Tombs Police court today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He was held in $25,000 bail to await the action of the Grand jury.

When the amount of bail was announced Mahoney smiled broadly and said, "Why not boost it a little? The more the merrier." Mr. Polk was resting quietly in the New York hospital today. He is expected to recover. Mahoney explained to detectives that when he bought the revolver he fired yesterday, he told the man who sold it to him in Jersey City that he wanted it to kill a rat.

Limit is 6 O'Clock Sunday Evening For Huerta to Consent to Salute The Flag

Wilson Tells Huerta That if He Does Not Guarantee By That Hour Sunday Evening to Salute the Stars and Stripes, He Will on Monday Ask Congress for Power to Act—If the Worst Comes, Vera Cruz, Tampico and a Portion of the Railway to Mexico City Will Be Seized—Navy Department Is Flashing Its Orders.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 18.—Huerta will salute the American flag at Tampico before 6:00 p. m. Sunday, or President Wilson will go before Congress in a joint session on Monday, and ask for authority to take such measures as may be necessary.

The following statement was issued at the White House: "General Huerta is still insisting on doing something less than has been demanded, and something less than would constitute an acknowledgement that his representatives were entirely in the wrong in the indignities they have put upon the United States. President Wilson has determined that if Huerta has not yielded by 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon, he will take the matter before Congress on Monday." Secretary Bryan explained that that statement meant that Huerta would be obliged to guarantee the salute without qualifications by 6:00 p. m. Sunday, but that physical obstacles might defer its being fired by that hour.

Both Republican and Democratic leaders are agreed that should some overnight development cause the President to take some steps before he could consult with Congress, he would be sustained in whatever he finds it necessary to do.

Unless Huerta accepts the American demands immediately, the plan for the seizure of Tampico and Vera Cruz will be carried out without waiting for Admiral Badger and his ships to reach Mexican waters. This plan also includes the seizure of the railway from Vera Cruz to Mexico City as far as a trestle, about 20 miles west of Vera Cruz.

While President Wilson's final message was in transmission to Mexico City, orders were flashing out from the Navy department putting all the forces in Mexican waters in readiness to enforce its terms. There were no orders to the troops at Texas City. Members of the Cabinet have been summoned to the White House for a conference.

By Associated Press.

Washington, D. C., April 18.—(Bulletin)—Huerta has reiterated his counter proposition for a simultaneous salute. President Wilson has informed him that the United States stands on the original demand of Rear Admiral Mayo, and that he must accept immediately.

Huerta's reply to the latest representation of the United States is described by officials today as "unresponsive." As O'Shaughnessy's dispatches were being deciphered, it became known there was more quibbling over terms. Secretary Bryan took the latest dispatches to the White House to lay them before President Wilson, who again cancelled his plans to go to White Sulphur Springs for the week end. It is thought Huerta is making an effort to bring an end to the negotiations.

The opinion expressed among officials close to the White House, among Cabinet officials and in Congress, was that Huerta would be notified by Wilson that his demand for a 21 gun salute was final. It was pointed out, however, that this situation may easily assume a waiting phase until next Tuesday or Wednesday, when the battleships will have reached Mexican waters, and the demonstration ordered on the coast will be under way. With Rear Admiral Badger's ships at Tampico and Vera Cruz, and the Pacific fleet off western ports, official Washington expects Huerta will be given a certain time in which to comply with the United States' demands.

The Board of Aides, which with Secretary Daniels, is the executive force of the Navy, went into a secret conference today to complete plans for the movements of the fleet and marines. It is reported in official circles that President Wilson might address Congress personally on Monday.

Mexico City, April 18.—The substance of the reply of the United States Government to the demand of President Huerta that there should be a simultaneous salute fired by the Americans when the Mexicans salute the American flag was delivered last night by Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American Charge d'Affaires, to Senor Portillo y Rojas, the Foreign Minister.

The Cabinet meeting lasted three hours. It was impossible to learn its result from either the Minister or Mr. O'Shaughnessy.

HIS PLAYTHING.

—Donnell in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Mexican Foreign Minister said that his Government would regard the return salute by the United States in response to the Mexican salute of the American flag as a tacit recognition of the Huerta administration.

By Associated Press.

Torreon, April 18.—"I do not believe the Tampico incident will result in war between the United States and Mexico," said General Villa. He said he was certain he could protect American non-combatants in Mexico if war should break out between the two nations.

Washington, April 18.—The confidence of the administration that the acute Mexican situation had cleared was shattered when the president and his advisers were recipient of a new inquiry from Huerta which amounted to a stipulation by him that the United States agree to fire a salute to the Mexican flag simultaneously with the salute that he would render to the American colors by way of reparation for the Tampico incident.

This inquiry was regarded by the Washington government as insolent and entirely out of accord with the spirit of the demand which the United States had made on account of the affront to the American flag and the American uniform.

As a result, Huerta is in receipt of a reply from this government which is in effect an ultimatum. He has been given to understand in as forceful language as this government could properly emphasize that the reparation must be rendered for the Tampico insult by a salute of 21 guns as emphasized in the demand by Admiral Mayo, and that this government will tolerate no further dallying.

It is, therefore, now up to Huerta to say whether or not he will order the salute of 21 guns or whether he will take the consequences. If he refuses the demand, the battleships now hurrying towards Tampico will blockade and seize all ports on the gulf coast and the United States naval vessels on the Pacific coast will undertake a similar campaign in those waters.

The president's plan now is exactly as it was before the renewal of negotiations by Huerta. The custom houses will be seized and held until such time as the Mexican government will render adequate satisfaction to the demands of the United States.

While the day's developments made the outlook for a peaceful settlement less favorable, the president and his advisers still insist that they are encouraged in the hope that Huerta will yet yield.

Secretary Daniels disclosed that the third division of the Atlantic fleet, including the Virginia, Connecticut and Ohio, now undergoing slight repairs in drydock, probably will go to Mexico April 26 or 27. The ships will not be overhauled until that time.

Secretary Daniels said that no additional ships of the Pacific fleet had been ordered to the west coast of Mexico other than the several ordered there to reinforce Admiral Howard at Mazatlan, Acapulco and Topolobampo on Wednesday.

Secretary of War Garrison said that so far as the existing situation was concerned the army remained in statu quo. He denounced a report saying he was seeking to buy ships in England to use as army transports.

Auburn, N. Y., April 18.—The National Board of Baseball Arbitration today decided the Hamilton franchise, in the Ohio State League, forfeited to the League.

SENATORS STAND BY DEMAND FOR SALUTE

Washington, D. C., April 18.—A number of U. S. Senators today are outspoken in reference to the controversy between the United States and Mexico, further complicated by Huerta's counter demand for a simultaneous salute to the U. S. flag. Sen. Shively, Democrat, of Indiana, said:

"There will not be one sign of weakening from the original demand of the United States. As I understand it in our first demand, Admiral Mayo said that the Mexican salute would be returned. That is well enough, and I think we should return it under the ordinary rules of courtesy, but we will not have the terms of the apology we insist upon dictated by General Huerta."

Senator Weeks (Republican), of Massachusetts: "The situation is getting to be precisely like the plot of a comic opera. The most absurd thing of all is the demand by Huerta that we return the salute. It is like a man whose face has been slapped demanding an apology, whereupon the other fellow, who has done the slapping, says, 'All right, I will apologize, but if I do you must thank me for it.' We might offer to supply him with the powder if he will salute us. I am told by friends of mine who have been down there that this Huerta is a most intelligent and educated man, and I can readily believe it, judging from the skill with which he has fenced off our demands."

Representative Murdock, Progressive leader in the House: "If we return a salute to those bandits," said he, "we might as well fire a few guns to the memory of Robin Hood, Rainsell or Jesse James."

Senator Hughes (Democrat), of New Jersey: "We ought to blow that old scoundrel Huerta right off the map. The idea of his attempting to dictate to us in any such way following such an insult! The only thing to do is to use force with all the promptness possible following his refusal to carry out our demands. We have done all the waiting necessary, I think, and it is time for some action to teach that man that it is dangerous to insult Americans and even more dangerous to insult the American flag."

Senator Catron (Republican), of New Mexico: "I don't think there will be any war. Huerta is a smart man and he knows that he cannot fight the United States and the Constitutionists put together. He will give in and yield to our demands, I feel sure, when the time comes."

Senator Kern (Democrat), of Indiana: "I am not in favor of temporizing with Huerta for one moment. The United States needs no suggestions from him."

Senator Martine, Democrat, of New Jersey: "A few shells would not hurt Huerta at all in my opinion. It has got to a point where American people have been trampled upon and walked over until they can't stand it any longer and somebody has got to pay for it. We will have to fight unless Huerta capitulates immediately and completely."

Senator Fall (Republican), of New Mexico: "Huerta has raised himself in my estimation wonderfully by the way he has handled this situation. But the way it has been handled from this end is pitiful, as it strikes me. If the present trend of negotiations continue, before long he will be demanding that we apologize to him, after which the incident will be considered closed. I have not doubted from the start that the sending of the entire fleet to Mexico meant something more than the exchange of salutes or any other apology for an insult to the flag."

"Let Huerta salute," said Senator Chilton, "then we will make up our mind about returning the salute."

ARMY DRUNK HORNS GONE

Canton, Ohio, April 18.—Because members of the life corps of Gen. Jacob S. Coxey's army of the "commonweal" traded their instruments for beer, became intoxicated and were jailed by the village marshal in Louisville, Ohio, Gen. Coxey issued an edict against drinking as the army left that village, east of here today, on the third day of the march to Washington.

"I don't belong to the W. C. T. U., but from now on you have either got to cut out the booze or we don't want you along," was the substance of Coxey's address to his troops. "We're marching to Washington to teach the people a great moral lesson, and you'll destroy its effect by getting drunk."

Coxey was pleased by the prediction of a gypsy fortune teller that he would live to be 100 years old, as he was by the increase in the number of his troops to more than a score.

FIGHT CIGARETTES IN CLINTON COUNTY

Levi Mills, Probate Judge of Clinton county, has issued the following statement against the sale of cigarettes to boys:

"We have eighteen persons in Clinton county who are vendors of cigarettes, by virtue of a license authorizing them to sell the same; eight in Wilmington, four in Blancheville, two in New Vienna, two in Sabina, one in Midland City and one in Port William.

"Against one of these men, complaint was made by the Superintendent of Schools, that he sold cigarettes to a minor; when brought into the Juvenile Court, he admitted the sale, but attempted to justify the act by saying that, when the sale was made the boy stated that he was eighteen years of age. This may have satisfied the vendor's conscience but could not legalize the sale, in case the boy's declaration proved untrue, as the seller, when he took the statement, did so at his own risk.

"The law concerning the sale of cigarettes to minors, Section 12965 of the General Code of Ohio reads as follows: 'Whoever sells, gives or furnishes to a person under eighteen years of age a cigarette, cigarette wrapper or substitute for either, or a cigar or tobacco, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not less than two days or more than thirty days, or both, and for each subsequent offense, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and imprisoned not less than five nor more than sixty days.' The willful violation of this law is one of the most heinous of misdemeanors.

"I hereby request the Superintendents of Schools in the eight villages in which the sale of cigarettes is licensed, to furnish me, as the Judge of the Juvenile Court, with the names of the boys between the ages of twelve and eighteen who are pupils in the Public Schools, so that the Probation Officer may furnish the vendors of cigarettes with the list. This will be done for the purpose of removing from the boys the temptation to make untrue declarations as to age, and of depriving the vendors of the opportunity of justifying the sale because of the false statements of minors.

"I also ask the editors of the newspapers in these villages to publish this request as their liberal contribution in the interest of our boys."

LEVI MILLS, Probate Judge.

WILL TAKE VOTE ON CENTRALIZATION

The question of centralization of schools in Jefferson township, Greene county, will be settled in a special election on a $50,000 bond issue for centralization building near Bowersville, which will be held April 28. Sentiment is at fever heat over the matter in the village and township, and while the majority of voters are said to be favorable to centralization this matter is the principal subject of conversation in the locality. W. A. McCurdy, state school inspector, spoke on the benefits to be derived from centralization, before a large audience in the M. E. church in Bowersville, this week.

The question of building a township school arose when the old high school in Bowersville was condemned. The school board was also faced with the problem of closing three of the nine schools in the township because the average daily attendance was less than twelve, and conveying pupils who attended the schools to other districts.

If centralization is adopted in Jefferson, it will be the first district in Greene county in which this new plan in rural schools is carried out, and the outcome of the election is looked forward to with interest.

B. & O. FOUNDRY TO LEAVE CHILLICOTHE

B. & O. Master Mechanic P. H. Reeves arrived home from a two days' business trip this morning and stated that the local shops foundry will close on Saturday. The "grey iron" foundry will be moved to Newark but the brass foundry remains here, says the Chillicothe Advertiser. The removal of the former means the doing away with ten men's work.

These men can either go to Newark or places will be given them in the local shops, should they care to stay here. There are three men working in the brass foundry. Mr. Reeves gives the following reason for the moving of the foundry: "Some time ago, the B. & O. inquired if the local foundry could make all castings necessary for the C. H. & D. work.

"The local foundry was not able to do this on account of its small size. To take care of C. H. & D. castings it would be necessary to enlarge the local foundry at great expense. At Newark, there is a foundry equipped to care for the castings of the entire C. H. & D. and Southwestern. It is as large as the local erecting shop." There is nothing to replace the foundry removed from the local shop.

Mr. Reeves said that the outlook for the local shops was better this year than it has been since 1910. "We have been given enough money to work our present force of 544 men for 9 hours a day, 6 days a week for an indefinite period."

SPRINGFIELD MAY USE ARGENTINA BEEF

Will Springfield receive any shipments of Argentine beef?

This question will probably be answered by Wednesday, local market dealers say.

The first shipment of the beef to this part of the country arrived in Columbus Wednesday morning. It is already offered for sale.

It can be sold to the retailer at prices around 11 and 11½ cents, while native steers, sold from the same place, must bring 13 and 13½ cents.

There is some physical difference in the beef. Native beef ranges from 600 to 700 pounds, South American cattle range between 750 and 900 pounds. The native beef is slightly finer grained. The average buyer of meat, however, could not tell the two kinds apart, if they were hung side by side in the same stall.

The South American meat is not frozen, when it arrives, as some believe. It comes in the same degree of refrigeration as beef killed in Chicago.—Springfield Sun.

CIRCUS DETECTIVE ACCOMPANIES SHOW

Col. Chas. Hagerman, head of the detective department of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus, which comes to Washington Saturday, April 25, for performances at 2 and 8 p. m., is one of the best known circus officers in the world. It is the duty of Col. Hagerman and his assistants to see that no persons of bad repute be allowed to operate in a city where the show is to exhibit.

"The personality of circus men has changed materially for the better in recent years," said Col. Hagerman recently in an interview. "Time was when they invariably wore high silk hats and clothes of many checks and hues. To be without a 'fist' full of 'rocks' or well decorated shirt or necktie was a standing reproach to the profession. Now-a-days the circus man wears little jewelry, and in his attire and speech he differs not from the ordinary person. He surrounds himself with associates of good character and business integrity, and cherishes highly his good standing in the community.

"A generation ago it was the custom to think that circus followers were a bad lot of men. Of course in a small city there are a few bad fellows. There are more than 1,000 employees of the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus. It is a little tented city in itself. Now it is but natural to follow that there are a few fellows who are not as good as they should be. As quickly as we discover a dishonest man in our ranks, we eliminate him, and, at the same time we cultivate the honest, conscientious working-man.

"A great many people have an idea that circuses make an enormous profit. Nothing is more erroneous. Our circus is valued at $4,000,000 and if in the fall our books show that we have earned a 10 per cent profit, we are well pleased. The wear and tear is hard; and the death of a single rare animal will eat up the profits of days."

MODEL DIVORCE COURT ESTABLISHED

The first divorce court ever established in Ohio is now in operation at Cleveland. The purpose of this new tribunal is to reduce the number of divorces. The creation of this court comes as a result of a plan put into effect by the common pleas judges of Cuyahoga county, who have designated one of their number, Judge W. B. Neff, to preside over it.

Social workers, church federations and reform organizations generally will watch with keen interest the work of the new court. Many reforms are hoped to be worked out thru this new judicial experiment. Uniformity of divorce legislation, complete investigation of all cases, assuring decrees to only those entitled to them, the holding up of decrees for 60 days and broader definitions of gross neglect and cruelty are some of the reforms planned.

The movement for reform legislation on the divorce question was started by the late Federal Judge Robert W. Taylor, who represented the Eighteenth district, the old McKinley district, in congress for four terms and who resigned a fifth term nomination, when he was in congress. Judge Taylor died in Cleveland some three years ago.

Judge Neff expects to hear from ten to fifteen cases daily. A complete record will be kept of all testimony. In every case where the court suspects there has been collusion or misrepresentation sensation, or where he believes an investigation is necessary, he will call on the county clerk to assign one of his deputies to make a thorough investigation.

If there is any possible chance of effecting a reconciliation between the parties involved in divorce proceedings the court will do all in its power to bring this about. Judge Neff is sanguine over the prospects of being able to accomplish much good through the instrumentality of the new court.—Exchange.

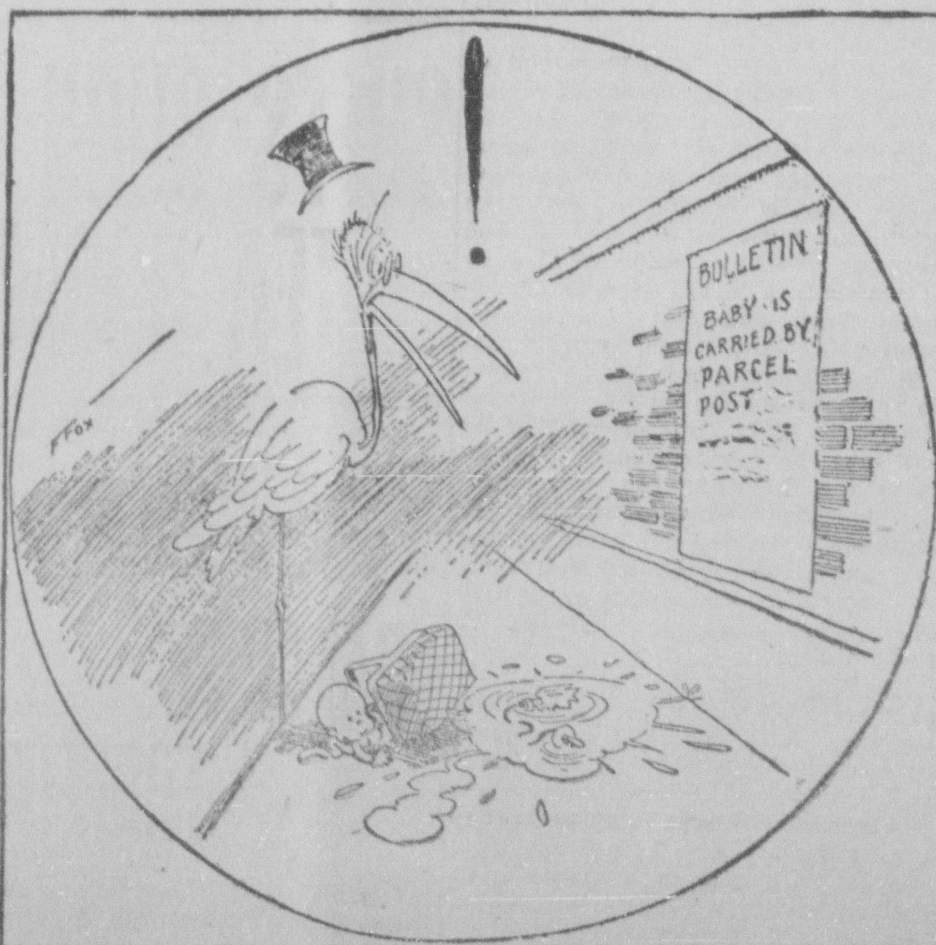

Altered the Case.

"Henry, what is this underworld there is so much talk about?" "The underworld is a general term that is applied to the class which is made up of people who trade on vice and live by criminal practices." "Dear me! Why is such a class permitted to exist?" "Oh, it serves its purpose." "In what way, I should like to know?" "For one thing, if there were no such class I'm afraid I'd have to go out of the law business right away, and I don't know of anything else that I could make a living at." "Well, of course, that being the case, I suppose we ought to look at it sensibly, but I almost wish you had studied to be a doctor."—Chicago Record-Herald.

An Advertisement of Fact For Thinking People

People who buy Automobiles are tired of windy claims; they relish intelligent analysis. Detroit advertising at all times aims at FACTS. It has stated and proved that the Detroit is the only popular priced automobile in America that combines a full floating rear axle, able to withstand a ton of overload; a long stroke, 32 horse power motor; streamline body; platform rear spring (the only type that makes the shock absorber unnecessary;) and expensive, power-conserving, long-lived ball-bearings throughout.

These are facts that count--that make possible 20 to 25 miles on a gallon of fuel, and 100 to the quart of lubricant. : : :

Views of Others

LIVING ON PREPARED FOODS.

A pioneer grocer of an Ohio town has been looking over some old account books and finds that, aside from butter, poultry and meat, staple food articles in bulk are not higher in price than they were 25 years ago.

This old storekeeper has reflected over his old accounts and has concluded that we are not so bad off nowadays as we think. His records run back to "the good old days" when coal oil was 75 cents a gallon and leather boots were $12 a pair.

His figures show conclusively that a man and woman can set up housekeeping today in better shape for the same money than was possible a quarter of a century ago.

He says it is the modern craze for prepared foods done up in attractive packages which has increased the cost of living.

"If people would buy things in bulk, as they used to do, and cook their food for themselves, as they used to do, there would be no high cost of living problems."

The average can of baked beans, he declares, does not contain two cents worth of beans, and the average package of crackers contains little more than four ounces.

If his figures are right, his conclusions are sound. Of course, we cannot have others do our work for us and not pay extra as a result.

The mother who used to do the family sewing—where has she gone? Sewing has almost become a lost art in family life; and dresses and shirts are made by specialists. The good old-fashioned mothers of earlier days who did the cooking, the baking, the sewing, the weaving, the knitting, the nursing, the whole housekeeping, may have been overworked, may have had no thought of suffrage, and may have aged and died early, but they kept down the cost of living.

After all, is it so very important that the cost of living be kept down? Is not abundant and broader life better? Is not emancipation of women from household drudgery more important?—Athens Messenger.

Fixing the Tax Rate

The suggestion which the State Tax Commission has made that the County Budget Commission in each county of the state, call in the officials from each taxing district in the county and invite the public generally to attend a meeting at which the question of receipts and expenditures of the public revenues may be discussed, is a good one.

Heretofore the officials in the various taxing districts have certified to the County Budget Commission, the amount of money which, in their opinion, would be necessary to foot the bills in that district during the year. The Budget Commission then added to such estimates for each district the amount of county and other levies and if in any district the amount of money asked for, plus the county levies and state levies, could not be produced by levying the legal rate on the property listed, then the amount asked for was reduced.

Year after year the County Budget Commission has wrestled with this problem of cutting the needs to meet the resources and in some instances taxing districts have been compelled to go short of money because the funds asked for could not be raised on the property listed and still remain within the tax rate limit.

This year the duplicate is to be increased by the listing of more personal property than was listed last year.

The inclination to cut down the estimates made by the taxing district will not, of course, be as strong as was the actual necessity for it existing when the return was smaller.

Hence the State Tax Commission has wisely suggested that the men who pay the bills—the taxpayers—be asked into the conference. It is believed that the presence of the officials who are asking for money, the taxpayers who must produce the money and the umpires—the Budget Commission—all in one meeting will be productive of much good and encourage the officials who must determine the tax rate to hold the expenditures to the minimum, notwithstanding the resources are increased materially.

The suggestion of a public meeting to which taxpayers may come and at which they may express their views is meeting with approval of the taxing officials and the people generally in every county where it has been discussed.

So far they welcome the idea of bringing the taxpayer into the conference.

There is no more important work than fixing the tax rate and there is no one more interested in that work than the taxpayer.

Why shouldn't he be consulted?

Decline of Infant Mortality Offsets Birth Rate

By Dr. SHIRLEY W. WYNNE of New York Health Department

THERE has undoubtedly been a decline in the birth rate in every civilized country of the world and especially in France, where the BIRTH RATE HAS FALLEN BELOW THE DEATH RATE, but this has been offset to some extent in most other countries by the DECLINE OF INFANT MORTALITY.

IN COMPARING THE BIRTH RATE OF THE SAME COMMUNITY FOR DIFFERENT YEARS THE CRUDE BIRTH RATE IS FOUND FAIRLY SATISFACTORY, FOR IT CAN BE ASSUMED WITH A REASONABLE CERTAINTY THAT THE AGE AND SEX DISTRIBUTION REMAINS CONSTANT. BUT WHEN IT BECOMES NECESSARY TO DRAW A COMPARISON BETWEEN THE BIRTH RATES OF DIFFERENT CITIES OR EVEN OF DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE SAME CITY THE EMPLOYMENT OF THE CRUDE BIRTH RATE AS THE STANDARD OF COMPARISON GIVES RISE TO SERIOUS ERRORS.

Brooding over this totally imaginary defect, he decided that his teeth must be the cause of it. He abstracted a forceps from the surgeon's case and, when he found himself alone, carefully pulled out all his teeth. The wounds healed rapidly, and the poor maniac confessed that the operation had been very painful.

Poetry For Today

THE MODERN POLONIOUS.

It never pays to whine, my son;
The world has little time to hear
Complaints from those who have not won

The prizes that are scarce and dear
The man who haunts a gloomy nook
Is never cheered and seldom praised;

Assume an air and try to look
As if your pay had just been raised.

It never pays, my son, to let
Your neighbor see your empty purse,

Nor will it help your case to fret
When things have gone from bad to worse;

When luck deserts you, as it will,
Conceal the fact from foe and friend,

And try to look as if you still
Had money that you wished to spend.

It never pays, my son, to show
That fear is lurking in your breast
When trouble weighs your spirit low

'Tis time to smile your merriest,
I cannot tell you how to strut
With pride when trouble crushes you,

Or how to laugh while grieving, but
I know it is the thing to do.

WEDDING PLANS DISAPPOINTING

Washington, April 18.—The marriage of Miss Eleanor Rudolph Wilson and the secretary of the treasury, William Gibbs McAdoo of New York, will take place in the White House on Thursday, May 7. The announcement was made by the president and Mrs. Wilson. The announcement added:

"In accordance with the wishes of Miss Wilson and Mr. McAdoo, the wedding will be very small; only the vice president and Mrs. Marshall, the cabinet and the immediate members of the two families are to be present."

These plans are disappointing to Washington society, which had hoped for a large and brilliant wedding. It has been known recently, however, that Mrs. Wilson's illness had caused a curtailing of the original plans. It is believed that the ceremony will be performed at noon and by a Presbyterian minister, assisted by an Episcopalian, as the McAdoo family are of the latter faith.

Miss Wilson's trousseau is now practically ready. Miss Wilson herself is at White Sulphur Springs, but she made a trip to Washington last Monday to arrange for the final details of her wedding. The most of the trousseau has been purchased and arranged for in New York.

AROUSES CONGRESS

Washington, April 18.—General Huerta's demand that the United States with Mexico fire a simultaneous salute of 21 guns aroused the strongest feeling in congress against the Mexican dictator that has yet been shown. Many senators and representatives are convinced that Huerta was playing with the United States, and many statements were heard in favor of immediate drastic action on the part of this government. Some members of congress were inclined to believe that Huerta is working solely with a view to uniting the Mexican people behind him in a common cause against the United States.

"The danger of this trifling with a delicate situation is that it will make trouble on the border," said Senator Fall of New Mexico. "Things are in an inflammable condition there and trouble may start up on the border at any time."

Only after the general's secretary, David Coxey, 11, had driven his pony through the puddle would the mule proceed. Thereafter it was necessary for David to lead the way. Surgeon General Gorgas Upholds Daniels' Order.

Revenue Cutter Service Likewise May Be Forced to Eliminate Liquor on Vessels—Possible Modifications in Sweeping Navy Changes Before They Become Effective July 1.

Washington.—William C. Gorgas, the new surgeon general of the army, on his return from South Africa expressed his approval of the order issued by Secretary Daniels forbidding the use of liquor aboard naval vessels and in all navy yards and all naval stations.

Many army officers expressed the opinion that this foreshadows an official order making the army as "dry" as the navy will be when Daniels' new regulation goes into effect on July 1.

Moreover, rumors were in circulation that William G. McAdoo, secretary of the prohibition order, but that it was not necessary for him to do so.

Gorgas, who has been in South Africa installing in the diamond mines sanitary methods similar to those in the Panama canal zone, expressed great interest in the new move made by Secretary Daniels.

He asserted that officers in both branches of the service would be far better off if they never touched liquor.

As surgeon general of the army he is in a position to follow the lead of Surgeon General Branstetter of the navy in recommending the abolition of officers' wine messes at army posts.

Secretary Daniels let remarks drop indicating that modifications in the order are likely to be made before it goes into effect July 1.

"There is plenty of time between now and July," said the secretary, "to make any modifications that may seem necessary. But the order will remain absolute to the extent of prohibiting wine messes or the use of intoxicating liquors in officers' quarters, clubs or other kinds of organizations on shipboard or at shore stations."

"I am convinced not only from what I have seen, but from the examination of cases that come before me daily, that many a young officer fresh from the Naval academy learns to touch the first drop in these wine messes, and not infrequently this leads to his dismissal from the service."

FIVE TAXING DISTRICTS ARE VIRTUALLY COMPLETED

District Assessor J. C. Dunn's figures: weekly report to the State Tax Commission, shows a gain of $1,055,380 on 1937 returns, the total amount of the returns being $3,464,785 against $2,409,405 last year.

At the present five taxing districts have been almost completed, and show a total gain of $415,000.

The five districts show the following gain over last year: Concord, $53,000; Green, $50,000; Marion, $121,000; Perry, $67,000 and Fourth ward in Washington, $124,000. The last mentioned gain does not include increase on incorporated companies.

A definite idea of the increase in the five taxing districts since 1912 may be gleaned from the following

Returns in Concord—1912, $265,819; 1913, $288,565; this year $340,790.

Green—1912, $238,290; 1913, $258,900; this year $208,290.

Marion—1912, $263,820; 1913, $311,926; this year $428,660.

Perry—1912, $249,100; 1913, $254,810; this year, $291,820.

Fourth ward—1912, $187,185; 1913, $179,025; this year, $308,670.

It will be seen in the above figures that in the Fourth ward, the returns were smaller in 1913 than in 1912.

The coming week is expected to be a busy one among the assessors, and other taxing districts will probably be finished during the coming week.

LAST SAD RITES LARGELY ATTENDED

Grace church held a finely representative gathering of foremost citizens, leading business and professional men, as well as a large number of relatives and friends from all over the county for the funeral services of Mr. Josiah Hopkins.

The city banks were all closed during the hour of the funeral, Mr. Hopkins having been vice-president of the Midland National bank, and held in high regard by the banking fraternity, and but few, if any, business houses of the city but were represented.

Attending in a body were the men of Mr. Hopkins' Sunday School class, the Gardner Memorial class, and the young women of the Sunday school class of his daughter, Mrs. Eva J. Penn.

At two o'clock, while plaintive strains came from the organ, the flower-covered casket was borne down the aisle, to rest amid a bower of flowers, during the impressive service.

It was a service in perfect accord with the life of the quiet sleeper, unostentatious and beautiful in its simplicity.

Rev. F. E. Ross, Mr. Hopkins' pastor, had charge of the services, assisted by Rev. W. B. Gage of the Presbyterian church.

A quartet, Miss Edith Gardner, Miss Lulu Larrimer, Messrs. Jos. E. Mark and Chas. Dalbey sang tenderly hymns that were especially appropriate. "We'll Think of the Home Over There," and "Shall We Gather at the River." Mrs. Frank Hopkins was the organist.

The pastor followed a few brief words of memoir with a heartsome tribute.

Referring to the well known figure and quiet, genuine life of "Father Hopkins", as he was so often called, the pastor suggested that his passing brought to mind a number of passages from the Bible, which seemed to show that it was the divine intent for man to be spared to reach a ripe age. Rev. Ross said in part: "Conditions of today do not conduce to old age; many untoward things step in to shorten the period of human life, and there is a spirit of skepticism which regards old age as an evil to be feared, as one skeptic expresses it, 'Old age puts more wrinkles upon the spirit than upon the body.' A life like Father Hopkins' was a protest against all such notions of old age; it proved that old age is one of God's choicest gifts; it is in itself a confirmation of God's words, 'The hoary head is a crown of glory if it be found in the way of righteousness.' No man was more worthy of respect as a citizen, business associate or friend, yet the community cannot think of Father Hopkins without immediately recalling his calm Christian character.

Mr. Hopkins was a man in whom the home instinct was developed to an unusual degree. He deeply loved his home and family, and his affection was most fully reciprocated.

He was a modest man, not giving his views needless prominence, but holding with dignified reticence to his own ideas. He attended church services with remarkable regularity, and even when he could not hear, the alertness of his face and attitude showed that he was in tune with the spirit of the service.

So quiet, so unaffected, so devoted to every worthy influence, Father Hopkins leaves behind him positive testimony for the Christian life. As we leave the world it is not what people say of us, but what we are that counts. Such a life as the one which has just passed over to his coronation will live in the lives of his children and grand-children and for years to come the community will gratefully cherish the memory of this good man.

The quartet sang, "In the Sweet By and By" in closing.

Many relatives and friends accompanied the family to the Washington cemetery for the last services on the family lot.

The pall-bearers were the two sons, Austin F. and Scott Hopkins, two grand-sons, Ralph Penn and Edwards Hopkins, son-in-law, Walter Hamilton, and brother, David Hopkins.

The floral remembrances were very beautiful and in great number such a tribute of flowers as is seldom seen except in case of a public man or one having many affiliations. Besides the profusion sent by friends and relatives there were a number of special designs from the family. "Gates Ajar", in roses, lilies and rare flowers, with a dove holding the green twig, suggestive of peace, "after the storm is past"; a superb basket of violets and lilies of the valley from the Grand lodge, O. E. S., of Ohio, of which Mrs. Eva J. Penn was grand worthy matron during the past year; a large wreath from the Washington Milling Co., and beautiful basket of tulips from the employees; very handsome basket yellow roses from Midland National bank; casket spray shaded pink carnations, Gardner Memorial class; yellow rose spray, Grace M. E. church; wreath of carnations, Presbyterian session; spray white roses and carnations, Mrs. Eva J. Penn's Sunday School class; spray snap dragons, the M. H. G. class; wreath of roses, the Kensington club; pink roses, the Monday

An important meeting of the official board of Grace M. E. church was held in the parlors of the church Friday night.

The principal business of the evening was to hear and act upon the report of the committee appointed a few weeks ago to make a general survey of overhauling and redecorating the church, and the recommendations of the committee were unanimously adopted.

It is understood that it is the intention to clean and redecorate all of the walls and ceiling; clean and varnish all woodwork; install a new and modern lighting system so that the light will be just as great but not so painful to the eyes of the congregation, minister and choir, and to enlarge the choir loft so that considerable more room is available. A suitable carpet for the auditorium will also be purchased, it is understood, and a modern vacuum cleaner will be purchased to take care of the carpets properly.

The work in question, it is understood, will begin about June 1st, and be finished before the annual Conference which assembles here late in September.

During the time the church is undergoing repairs and changes, Sunday school will probably be held in the Sunday school rooms of the church, while preaching services will be held elsewhere, probably in the auditorium of the High school building.

When the changes are completed, the big church will present a much more attractive appearance.

club.

The family very fully appreciated the flowers and many kindnesses attendant upon the death of Mr. Hopkins. Those attending the funeral from a distance were: Mrs. Phoebe Peterson and son, Luther, of Frankfort; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopkins, of Chillicothe; Mrs. Nolan Hathaway, of Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rodgers; Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rogers, of Bloomingburg; Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Columbus; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alkire, of Mt. Sterling; Messrs. Benjamin and Alex. Darbyshire, of Sabina; Mrs. Ella Stewart and son, Harry, of Parkhurst; Messrs. Barr and Graves, of Greenfield; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Eymann, of Fairview.

ONLY FOUR CONGRESSMEN VOTE AGAINST

Washington, D. C., April 18.—A majority of the Ohio delegation yesterday voted in the House in favor of changing the present allowance of 20 cents a mile to a sum of actual expense. The "actual expense" system includes allowances for the dependent members of each member's family.

Representatives Ansberry, Bulkley, Claypool and Post voted against the change in system, taking the position generally that the present allowance of 20 cents a mile not only is not a "graft," but does not begin to cover the expenses of travel which a Congressman must incur if he does those things which are required of him because he holds the position of Congressman.

Those voting in favor of the change in system are Allen, Ashbrook, Bathrick, Bowdle, Grumbaugh, Fess, Francis, Sherwood, Switzer, White, Willis and Gard. Those not voting were Gordon, Whitacre, Sharp, Crosser, Goeke and Key.

The House struck the mileage allowance for Congressmen out of the legislative appropriation bill.

ANNUAL ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE FIELD DAY

Tomorrow is the annual Anti-Saloon League Field Day, and will be observed by churches all over the county.

It will be a notable day in this city and three of the strongest speakers of the Anti-Saloon League will be here.

At Grace church Rev. J. K. Rutledge, whose fame as a speaker is nationwide, will fill the pulpit during the morning service.

Hon. Wayne B. Wheeler, superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, will fill the pulpit at the Presbyterian church for the morning services.

Sunday afternoon at 2:30 the annual county mass meeting will be held at Grace church, with Hon. Fred K. Landis, ex-Congressman from Indiana, and Supt. Wayne B. Wheeler speaking on temperance work; the progress made in the work during the past year and the big fight still ahead.

In the other churches of the city and county, appropriate sermons will be preached by the various pastors.

INSTITUTE OFFICERS WILL MEET APRIL 30

The State Agricultural Commission has invited farmer institute officers and persons who want an institute in their community to meet C. R. Wagner at the Court House in this city on Thursday, April 30, at 10 a. m.

At this conference, the time and place of holding institutes, making program, advertising, items of legal expense and manner of conducting institutes, will be discussed.

Increased demand for these meetings will undoubtedly result in many new places being given an institute next season.

The extent of assistance given to independent institutes and farmer club lecture course will be taken up.

Mr. Wagner, Assistant Director of Farmer Institutes, will represent the State Commission.

LECTURE COURSE COMMITTEE NAMED

The new committee of the Washington Lecture course has been named to succeed the former committee, and an early meeting of the committee will be held to decide upon another course for the coming year.

The new committee, appointed Friday night, is composed of Messrs. Wm. McClain, Fred Mark, Ray Maynard, A. W. Duff and George Bryan.

Another strong course will be secured for the coming season, and this will probably be done within the next two weeks.

TRAFFIC ORDINANCE CLEARS THE STREET

The traffic ordinance was placed into effect for the first time Saturday, Officers Baughn and Judy being stationed at the intersection of Court and Fayette and Court and Main.

The transformation was so pronounced, and traffic conditions so improved, that the work of the officers attracted great attention.

The "out of danger" circles were drawn at the street intersections.

SONS OF VETERANS HONORARY MEMBERS

The Ladies of the G. A. R. held their regular meeting and initiation Friday night and also received as honorary members of the Circle the Sons of Veterans belonging to the B. H. Millikan camp.

Miss Etha Sturgeon was initiated as a new member.

The evening's work was admirably conducted by the President, Mrs. Anna Rodgers, and the beautiful flag service added impressiveness.

MAMMOTH CLASS TAKES EXAMINATION

What is said to be the largest class of pupils ever taking the Boxwell-Patterson examination in this county, at one time, has enrolled for the first examination which was held at the High school building in this city Saturday.

The examination next month will be the last of the Boxwell examinations, as the new school laws eliminate the examinations and make other provision to take the place of the present tests.

GRANT

THE FIRST STANDARD HIGH GRADE MOTOR CAR TO BE SOLD UNDER $500

The Grant car will be owned and driven by men of every class. Never before has a car been brought out which would suit both the pocketbook of the man of moderate income and the critical taste of the man of means.

Cheap cars have, and will be produced, which run fairly well, but they have borne the unmistakable cheap car stamp, and every man who could afford to (and many who could not) have willingly paid the higher prices asked for other cars for the sake of driving a car they could be proud of.

But even if you are worth a million you can be proud to drive a Grant.

Look at the car—distinctive appearing, speedy, comfortable, dependable—the last word in body design and mechanical construction.

It is a car that anyone can be proud to drive and—this is important—Anyone can afford to.

You may spend one, two, even three thousand dollars for a car and not buy more of the essential features of a high grade motor car than you can get in a Grant for $495

Check it up for yourself and see.

Appearance—where can you buy at any price, a finer appearing car than the Grant? There is the same bull nose radiator, tapered hood, sweeping fenders, streamline body, low rakish appearance, that you will find on the highest priced imported cars.

Power—there is power enough under the hood of a grant car to carry you through the deepest mud or sand, or up the steepest hill you will ever encounter. That is all the power a car should have to be efficient.

Speed—50 miles an hour the Grant car will go—without urging—with practically no vibration or side sway. It is perfectly balanced.

Comfort—the comfort of the Grant car is a revelation. Nothing like it has ever been known in moderate priced car construction. It rides the bumps as smooth as the sway of a hammock. A day's touring over the roughest country in a grant car will bring no fatigue.

Reliability—the same high test materials, the same precision in machine work are used in Grant construction that are used in building cars costing five times as much. Repair bills have been practically eliminated.

Economy—30 miles to the gallon is the Grant gasoline consumption. The light weight enables the tires to give twice the ordinary mileage, and it only costs about forty dollars to replace the whole set. No car ever made has even approached the Grant in the matter of economy of operation.

Equipment—every necessary article of equipment from the top to the tail lamp is included in the price—$495.

Are we right? Are there any other essentials that a high priced car offers you, that you can't get in the Grant?

Think it over.

CHANGE IN TIME ON B. & O. EVENING TRAIN POSSIBLE

Washington citizens now have the opportunity of securing a change in time on B. & O. passenger train No. 107, due in this city from Columbus at 6:14 each evening. But immediate action will be necessary, and those who desire the change in time must get busy and let it be known that such a change is desired.

There has been considerable agitation to secure a change in time on the west-bound evening train, in order that local citizens attending the matinees, ball games, and other entertainments, may not be compelled to leave before the end of the entertainment in order to catch the evening train.

At present the train leaves Columbus at five o'clock, but it is stated with authority that a change of 40 or 45 minutes in the time the train leaves Columbus, may be obtained, so that it will leave Columbus near 5:45 each evening.

The only requirement necessary to secure the change in time is that those favoring it let the fact be known in order that the general passenger agent may know that the people really desire the change.

A new time card will soon be out on the B. & O., and if those favoring the change will get busy at once, the change will be made when the new time card becomes effective.

One plan suggested is that one of the prime movers for the change in time, prepare a petition directed to the general passenger agent and secure names of those desiring the change.

It is suggested that a fund be formed for the purpose of lending financial aid in bringing conventions, gatherings of various organizations, etc., to the city, such as the Spanish War Veterans, the Grange and conventions of various orders. This would be better for business and for the city, being one of the best methods of advertising what Chillicothe has to offer.

It has practically been decided to bring to an early close a contest that is now running in this city, and it is the purpose of the Association to oppose such contests in the future.

MERCHANTS WILL FIGHT CONTESTS

The Retail Merchants' Association is preparing to take action on the question of entering into the many "contests" and fake advertising schemes which are brought here by outside people and foisted upon the public. The Association will hold a meeting next Wednesday evening and will probably adopt a resolution to the effect that members will not engage in, patronize or encourage such enterprises.

They hold that such contests do the business men little, if any, good, and that they are worked by people who are looking only for their own profit and not for the good of the merchants or of the city. The money that is put into these contests, they think, could be expended so as

The local baseball season will be opened tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock under what now promises to be, favorable weather conditions.

Local fans since the first appearance of baseball weather have been anxious for the arrival of the day when the season at the local park would be opened with appropriate ceremonies and one of the most welcome features of the opening day ceremonies would be a victory for the local team. It is expected too.

Manager Noon announces that his team is fit and ready and that Reno will probably be accorded the honor of pitching the opener.

The opponents of the Athletics in tomorrow's game will be the Elite team of Springfield.

The visitors come well recommended and numbers in the line-up some individuals with a reputation of being high-class ball tossers. The team has never been seen in action here and consequently is somewhat of an unknown quantity.

Our boys after rigid and faithful training under Manager Noon's directions are reported to be in good condition and working well together and as a consequence no matter how good the visitors are individually or collectively they will be compelled to deliver a high-class article of baseball to travel with the local team.

The grounds are in fine condition and all the arrangements for the spectators' comfort and convenience have been provided.

Last year the Athletics enjoyed a very successful season both from an artistic and financial standpoint.

Both players and manager are imbued with a spirit of courage and confidence which means much for the playing end of the game.

The players are full of ginger and anxious for the first conflict.

Washington has patronized the Athletics liberally and the management has promised not only a continuation of the high-class baseball playing, but this season will see teams representing a larger number of cities; that the one cause for objection last year—too much sameness in opponents—will not exist this season.

The teams will line up for tomorrow as follows:

Washington—Jones, cf; Thompson, 2b; Corwin, ss; Witterd, lf; Adams, rf; Smith, lb; Winkle, 3b; Hagerty, c; Reno, Frayne or Runnells, p.

Springfield Elites—Copas, c; Yokum, p; Thospie, ss; Driscoll, lf; Fisher, 2b; Snyder, 3b; Shaefer, rf; Brosky, cf; Welder, lf.

MOTOR BUS STICKS IN PUBLIC ROAD

The Jeffersonville to South Charleston motor bus stuck fast in the public road near the John Fent home, one day this week, and remained where it was for most of the night, while jacks were used to lift the heavy bus from the deep ruts and place it upon terra firma.

The big wheels went down up to the axle, according to reports from Jeffersonville. The road is reported to be in very bad condition north of Jeffersonville.

BIDS FOR NEW SCHOOL OPENED

The lowest bid was a little more than $25,000, but the contract was not awarded at the time bids were opened.

RENDERS RULING OF IMPORTANCE

Judge Holds That Cruelty to Animals Is a Crime.

CHARGE IN VIVISECTION CASE

Declares That a Person Guilty of Cruel Treatment to an Animal, Even Though the Torture Be Done For Scientific Purposes, Is a Violator of the Law—Outcome of Case Awaited With Interest.

Philadelphia, April 18.—An important interpretation of Pennsylvania law on vivisection was made in the trial of Dr. Joshua E. Sweet, charged with wanton cruelty to dogs after operations, when Judge F. Amedee Brey, in addressing the jury in the criminal court, declared that a person that is guilty of wanton cruel torture of an animal shall be guilty of a crime, even though the cruel treatment be done for scientific purposes.

Dr. Sweet is assistant professor of surgical research in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania and has been on trial for three days. Five other members of the medical faculty of the university are also under indictment for alleged cruel treatment of dogs after operations, and the trial of their cases depends upon the outcome of the proceedings against Dr. Sweet.

The jury retired Friday evening and court adjourned until Monday morning. If a verdict is reached in the meantime it will be sealed and returned when court reconvenes.

Judge Brey's interpretation of the laws of Pennsylvania on the matter of vivisection is said to be the first ever made in the state. In his charge to the jury he said:

"To indicate a view on the part of physicians that these operations upon dogs were made for scientific purposes, to obtain information for the alleviation of human suffering, I charge you that the law of Pennsylvania does not allow pain and suffering, torment or torture to be inflicted upon dogs for any purpose except the relief of the suffering of the dog itself. They have no right to torture a dog or violate the law as I have read it to you for the purpose of obtaining scientific information."

VILLA STOPS TO SELL HIS PLUNDER

El Paso, Tex., April 18.—Advices were received here that General Villa had returned from the San Pedro fight and would proceed to Chihuahua for a conference with Carranza, thence to Juarez on official business.

The most urgent official business Villa has at the border is the disposal of the great quantity of cotton which he has seized in the Laguna district and which he is anxious to sell.

Upon his arrival at Torreon, Villa is said to have announced that there would be no further campaigning by the rebels in pursuit of the federals until his main force is withdrawn to Torreon for rest, new uniforms and new equipment. Villa announced that his next engagement would be at Monterey.

ANDERSON TO GET IN

Mahoning Statesman May Seek Republican Nomination.

Columbus, O., April 18.—D. F. Anderson of Youngstown, members of the constitutional convention, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor in 1912 and supporter of Roosevelt before but not after the renomination of Taft, is here seeking counsel of local friends whether to become a candidate for United States senator. He admitted he is thinking of entering the senatorial contest, but he has not yet pursued that thought to a definite conclusion. He is touring about the state, or parts of it, to examine the track and to discern how good the running may be.

John J. Leutz, another prospective senatorial candidate, but for the Democratic nomination, is back from Honolulu, where he went just after announcing he would make a campaign as soon as he returned.

He said he had been too busy this week to think about campaigning, but thought the water was fine. He intimated he would get in next week and that it would be no timid September Morn wading act, but he would jump in with a big splash.

State Chairman Walter F. Brown was a visitor at Progressive state headquarters. Petitions for Arthur L. Garfield for United States senator and James R. Garfield for governor were delayed in the printers' shops, but will be in circulation the first of the week.

FLARE-UP OVER BUST OF KAISER

Paris, April 18.—The incident growing out of the desire of Herr Bezner, a German sculptor, who has lived 15 years in Paris, to exhibit a bust of the emperor of Germany at the exposition of the Salon des Artistes Français, which opens on April 30, has been reopened. The authorities of the salon had induced Herr Bezner to say that he would not send in the bust, as it might lead to some unpleasantness. The German sculptor has now changed his mind and decided to send it in. As Herr Bezner is the winner of three medals he is not compelled to submit his work to a jury, but the secretary of the salon declares that the committee is still entitled to decide on the fitness of any exhibit which is liable to cause a manifestation.

LOST A FORTUNE

Newark, N. J., April 18.—Charles J. Koehler, a moving picture actor, convicted of bigamy, was sentenced to serve from three to 10 years in New Jersey state prison. Koehler was found guilty of committing bigamy by marrying a girl in this city last June when he had a wife living in Philadelphia.

FORD EXTENDS PROFIT SHARING

London, April 18.—Henry Ford of Detroit has decided to extend his profit sharing scheme to the employees of his automobile branches at Manchester and London. The hours of the workmen have been reduced from 10 to eight. The earnings of the men over 22 years will be 1 shilling and 3 pence (30 cents) an hour. Women and boys also receive substantial increases in their wages. About 1,300 persons will benefit by the scheme.

Lima, O., April 18.—Mrs. Henry Miller, 72, stepped off an Ohio Electric car west of this city and saw her husband walk in front of a limited train on the Pennsylvania railroad. He was killed instantly.

HAVE IDENTIFIED WOULD-BE SLAYER

New York, April 18.—In an attempt to take the life of Mayor John Purroy Mitchell, Michael P. Mahoney, an apparently irresponsible man of 71, who later said he is a blacksmith out of work, fired into a group of three men seated in the mayor's automobile, which stood at the east side of City Hall park. The bullet from his revolver entered the jaw of Corporation Counsel Frank L. Polk, who was sitting next to the mayor in the tonneau of the automobile, and with blood spurting from his mouth, Mr. Polk was taken into an antechamber in the city hall and afterwards to the New York hospital, where it was said that the wound would not prove fatal.

Mahoney shot at the mayor, he declared in the course of a disjointed statement, because he felt aggrieved at the city executive's "extravagant expenditures," and because he was incensed at being turned back from the door of the mayor's room in the city hall on two occasions this week when he came to apply for a municipal job.

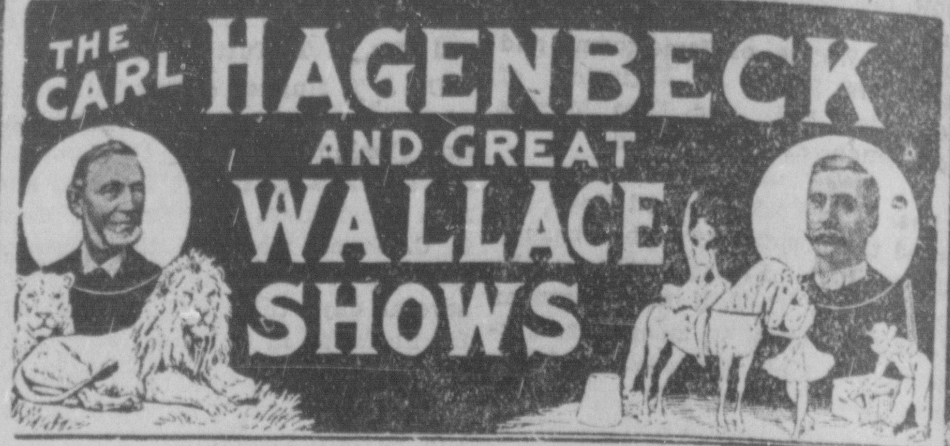

Mahoney fired only one shot at the mayor and his party. Before he could fire a second, he was overpowered by Detective George Neun, who in the capacity of chauffeur was adjusting robes about the men in the automobile, and the revolver was wrenched out of Mahoney's hand. The mayor sat in the middle of the back seat, with Mr. Polk on his right and George V. Mullan, the mayor's former law partner, on his left. The bullet passed so close to Mayor Mitchell that the left side of his face was scorched. Standing within a few feet of Mahoney was Police Commissioner Arthur H. Woods, who was waiting for the chauffeur to get into the car, intending to sit beside the driver after the latter was seated.

REDS LOSE TO THE CUBS

SPORT LETTER

Cincinnati, April 18, 1914.

With a majority of the teams in the two major leagues statered on their way in the 1914 fight for the pennant, base ball enthusiasts all over the land will now have their box score and their percentage table regularly on their daily menu. The opening games of Tuesday carry no significance with them, further than to emphasize the fact that base ball promises to be more popular than ever this year. Here in Cincinnati the followers of the game have been worked to an extraordinary pitch of enthusiasm over the methods that have been pursued in assembling and developing that talent that is to comprise the Reds this year. No claims are made for the team, so far as position is concerned; but those who have seen the boys perform so far unhesitatingly pronounce the brand of base ball offered to be of a higher class than any shown by a local aggregation in recent years. The only question about the team is its mechanical strength; intellectually and in the matter of leadership the Reds of 1914 measure up with any aggregation that has represented Cincinnati on the diamond in the past twenty years.

No team in the National League offers more opportunities for study than the Reds of this season. The many changes that have been made in the line-up add much interest to the general performances of the team this year. The engagement of Herzog as manager and shortstop; the advent of Bert Niehoff at third; Herb Moran in right field, Gonzales and Von Kolnitz behind the bat, the string of new pitchers, including Earl Minging and Jack Rowan, and the several new infielders and outfielders who are trying for utility jobs, add much to the zest which usually accompanies the study of the early work of a team. These youngsters will be used as much as possible in the early games in order that Manager Herzog may get a correct line on them and not turn any adrift who later may develop into stars. So the patrons of early games will have the opportunity of seeing many youngsters in action—youngsters who have come up as stars from other leagues, and who have demonstrated their right to thorough tryouts before their status finally is fixed.

Following Hank O'Day's aggregation the Pirates, led by Fred Clark, will come to town, they being the first Sunday attraction of the season, scheduled for a Sabbath encounter on April 19, and again on May 3, the St. Louis team, also with a changed map, having the intervening Sunday, April 26. The Pirates, since last seen here, have relieved St. Louis of Ed Konetchy, Mike Lowrey and Pitcher Bob Harmon, and have given the Cards in exchange Hans Niller, Dolan, Chief Wilson and a pair of pitchers. The Pirates also have developed an outfielder by the name of Kelly and several battery men, so that they may cut more ice than expected.

If all the horses which are still eligible for the Kentucky Derby, to be run at Louisville on May 9, were to start in that race, it would mean that just about half a million dollars worth of horse-flesh would line up against the barrier on that memorial occasion. It is doubtful that ever before in the history of the American turf so much valuable thoroughbred material was entered in one race as in this event. Six horses entered in that race alone have a value of $145,000, these being Old Rosebud, $40,000; Ralph, $25,000; and Hodge, Bradley's Choice, Black Tony and Boots and Saddles at $20,000 each. The other horses entered, to the number of about thirty, will swell the grant total to about $500,000. Some money, eh?

Those California fight promoters are beginning to do a little shaking in the vicinity of their ankles for the reason that the women in the Golden State, now that they have learned to vote, are looking for other opportunities to break into print, and feel that they have found one rare chance in the fighting game. Efforts now are being made to block this proposed opposition by having a Fight Commission appointed, modeled after those of New York and Cincinnati, thereby legalizing the game to the extent of preventing any outside interference so long as the battles are properly conducted.

English sporting men are criticizing Sir Thomas Lipton rather severely because of the radical departure he has taken in connection with the coming races for the America's cup. Instead of selecting one of the tried, and sometimes successful, professional skippers to take charge of the Shamrock IV, the Irish baronet has decided to entrust the new boat into the hands of one of the many amateur sailors of Great Britain, P. Burton. Sir Thomas Lipton's answer to the criticisms is that no professional ever won the cup for him, and for that reason he's going to try an amateur. Why not try an amateur boat builder, also?

ODE TO A NICKEL.

O nickel, what a lonely place would be this world of ours were it bereft of thee! Of all the minted flock that yearly flies across this land you only are my size. Without thee I would cheerless go my way. Nor hamburgs would I munch at close of day. The street car which at midnight takes me home Would rattle on without me; I would roam About ice-creamless, poolless, shineless. If some wise statesman had not thought of you. Fair nickel, all the moving picture shows Without your aid would shrivel up and close; The gun trust would be busted, in the lurch; The contribution plate that's passed at church Would not weigh half so much; the tightwad's yell At the hiccotiving soon would swell Beyond belief. Thou art the poor man's bread. The rich man's quick excuse when he is bled For shikels. And had I but saved your kind Within my empty pockets I might find The dough which now I lack. My sorry fate Might now be wreathed in smiles which would replace The clouded brow at this financial pickle I am in, O nickel!

Fire Terms in Japan.

Fires in Japan are so common that this destructive agency has established itself as a national institution, and a whole vocabulary has grown up to express every shade of meaning in matters fiery. The Japanese language has special terms for an incendiary fire, an accidental fire, fires starting from one's own house, a fire caught from next door, a fire which one shares with others, a fire which is burning to an end, the flame of a fire, anything—for instance, a brazier, from which a fire may arise; the side from which to attack a fire in order to extinguish it; a visit of condolence after a fire.—London Mail.

MAWSON WEDS GIRL WOOED BY WIRELESS

Antarctic Explorer Has Had Many Thrilling Experiences.

Melbourne.—Dr. Douglas Mawson, the antarctic explorer, who has just returned from a trip during which his two companions lost their lives and made his way back to the base after thirty days of suffering in blizzards, was married to Miss Delprat, daughter of a mine owner. The couple became engaged in 1911, when Miss Delprat was nineteen years of age and before Dr. Mawson started on the last expedition. They exchanged love messages by wireless while the doctor was in the antarctic.

The south pole was not Dr. Mawson's goal. He aimed at the exploration of the vast coast line of the antarctic which was discovered by the American, Captain Wilkes, seventy years ago and named after him. The party returned to Adelaide, Australia, on Feb. 27 of this year. The scientific results of the expedition are said to be very valuable. Besides the mapping out of newly discovered lands, extraordinary marine fauna were discovered at a depth of two miles and copper deposits and a vast coal bed were also found.

Dr. Mawson was born at Bradford, England, in 1882. He holds the position of lecturer in geology in the University of Adelaide.

BOOMS TEDDY TO HEAD BULL MOOSE

By Associated Press.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 18.—Senator Miles Poindexter, of Washington, launched a boom for the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt as the Presidential candidate of the Progressive party in 1916 in a speech delivered here today before the Indiana Progressive State Convention. The Senator, after an elaborate discussion and attack upon the Democratic and Republican parties declared the Progressive's Presidential nominee would have the support of the great mass of the people. The Democratic administration, he said, had not dealt effectually with current national or international questions because it was bound by "an unfortunate sectional issue." He denounced particularly President Wilson's stand for repeal of the tolls exemption clause of the Panama Canal Act.

"The Progressive party is fortunate in having in its ranks and as its principal leader Theodore Roosevelt," said the Senator. "He has the prestige of his record in the presidency. Should he be nominated by the Progressives, as he probably will be, for the Presidency, he will have the support of the great mass of the members of the Republican party, because they are progressive."

of the same futile policy to pay $25,000,000 of the people's money to the Republic of Colombia presumably to buy its good will. There seems to be a mania in this administration for making treaties. It is urged as a basis of peace. As a matter of fact, they are the source of controversy and disagreement leading to unfriendly rather than peaceful relations. This proposal of $25,000,000 to Colombia is nothing but an unwarranted raid upon the American treasury. The Province of Panama had severed its connection with the Republic of Panama when the United States purchased from it the Canal Zone. We did not inuence or foment its hostility or its secession from the larger republic. Its hostility was traditional. It has been looted and sucked of its substance by Colombia since the first French Canal company made its appearance on the isthmus.

"The Progressive party now has an opportunity given to but few human agencies to render a service to liberty, to democracy, and to mankind by preserving the Panama Canal from the unwarranted demands and influence of either foreign power or private domestic monopoly."

MOTHER JONES MAY BE HEARD IN WASHINGTON

Washington, D. C., April 18.—Mother Jones may have a hearing before the House Committee, investigating the Colorado coal strike.

Chairman Foster made this announcement today after receiving a request for the hearing by officials of the United Mine Workers. Her testimony may be taken here next week.

WORKHOUSE DELIVERY DISCOVERED IN TIME

Chief Canady, of Xenia, frustrated a cleverly laid scheme for a general dash for liberty among prisoners at the Xenia workhouse, a day or two ago, and probably prevented a bloody affray before the affair accompanying the dash for liberty.

Chief Canady picked up two men who had been released from the works and they confessed knowledge of the plot, stating that a scheme had been formed and was about to be executed. Supt. Crow of the workhouse, was notified, and nipped the plot in the bud, arresting the prime mover in the plot, who had just been released.

A number of prisoners from this city would have been among those in the dash for liberty.

NAVAL BILL LOOMING UP

Washington, D. C., April 18.—The House has started on passage the naval appropriation bill, providing for the building of two additional superdreadnaughts, six torpedo destroyers and eight submarines.

This program of construction for naval offense and defense may be changed with developments in the Mexican situation. It is considered to be significant that the naval bill should be thrown into the House at this time.

It will be two weeks before the bill is passed. It is expected that before final action is taken in the House on the naval increase the members will know of the needs of this country for naval strength.

The total appropriation carried in the bill submitted to the House yesterday is $139,964,333, about $1,000,000 less than last year's appropriation bill, when but one battleship was authorized.

In an attempt to discount the effect of public sentiment in favor of the navy, Chairman Padgett announced that at no time was the Naval Affairs Committee opposed to the construction of two battleships, the question of the committee being one of holding down expenditures.

MOOSE PAPERS IN; MASSIE QUILTS RACE

Columbus, Ohio, April 18.—Petitions for the nomination of James R. Garfield for governor and for Arthur L. Garford for United States Senator were forwarded from Progressive state headquarters to the various counties in Ohio. Today, so Chairman Walter F. Brown stated, there will be additional announcements of candidacies.

Former Senator D. Mead Massie, of Chillicothe, has made clear that he has abandoned all efforts to become the nominee for the governorship, saying: "I am merely a private citizen." G. W. C. Perry confirmed his withdrawal from further consideration.

BAIL FIXED AT $25,000

New York, April 18.—Michael P. Mahoney, gray haired crank, who yesterday attempted to assassinate Mayor Mitchell, and in so doing wounded Frank L. Polk, was arraigned in the Tombs Police court today on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He was held in $25,000 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

When the amount of bail was announced Mahoney smiled broadly and said, "Why not boost it a little? The more the merrier." Mr. Polk was resting quietly in the New York hospital today. He is expected to recover. Mahoney explained to detectives that when he bought the revolver he fired yesterday, he told the man who sold it to him in Jersey City that he wanted it to kill a rat.

He has been a model prisoner since his incarceration in the big prison.
